EMPIRE CELEBRATES KING'S BIRTHDAY

Nine Canadians Knighted in King's Birthday Honors

E. W. Beatty, Hon. Herbert Marler, Maj.-Gen. J. N. MacBrien, Charles G. D. Roberts Included in Title Group

VICTORIANS GET HONORS

Other Honors Make Up Total of 107

London, June 3.—The King's birthday brought to Canada this year a longer list of honors and awards than has appeared since restoration of titles in 1934.

To-day no fewer than nine Canadians found His Majesty had conferred knighthoods on them, while one already enjoying that title had been promoted. The imposing list of to-day's honors and awards brought the number of knighthoods created among Canadians since titles were restored in Canada up to seventeen.

In addition to knighthoods, ninety-seven other honors and awards were included in the list. Numerically it is greater than all three former lists issued, including that of New Year's, 1934, the first after titles returned to Canada. It is conspicuous for the fact that women figure prominently. Out of the total 107 awards, thirty have been conferred on women.

The Order of the British Empire, in its various grades, was the vehicle utilized by His Majesty in conferring these honors on women particularly. The list indicates that voluntary service to the community or country has been recognized.

Into all parts of the Dominion the King's honors extended this year. They crossed the Pacific, where Hon. Herbert M. MacBrien, Canadian envoy and minister plenipotentiary for Canada, was created a Knight Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

They extended into Northern Ontario, and Dr. Allan Roy Duff, who has won the admiration of the entire world by his care of the injured and world-famous quintuplets, found himself an Officer of the Order of the British Empire. A member of the Canadian Senate was made a knight bachelor.

To Sir Thomas White, K.C.M.G., who headed Canada's department of finance during the difficult days of the Great War an honor came in the list. He was promoted to be a Knight Grand Cross of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. The promotion does not carry with it any (Turn to Page 10, Col. 1)

Six Men Are Named Barons

King's Honors in Britain Include Forty-six New Knights

London, June 3.—Tokens of royal favor, honors of varying degrees were awarded by the King to-day to many persons throughout the Empire who have attained distinction in different fields.

Conferred on the occasion of the King's birthday and the Silver Jubilee, the awards went to famous figures in the artistic, literary and scientific worlds. Honored with them were persons who had rendered valuable service in business, government and kindred spheres.

The awards were made "on the occasion of His Majesty's birthday and in commemoration of the completion of the twenty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign," it was announced.

SIX NEW BARONS
Those conferred in the United Kingdom gave three persons the Order of Merit, made one a viscount, created three privy councillors, six new barons and forty-six new knights.

Included in the honors awarded elsewhere in the empire were five knights for Australians and one for a New Zealander.

To Canada went nine knighthoods and one promotion to a higher rank of knighthood.

Five Local Men Receive Decorations in King's Birthday List Issued To-day

Five Victorians figure in the honors list issued to-day on the occasion of the birthday of the King. For long and faithful service, the following are honored: Major-General E. C. Ashton, Officer Commanding Military District No. 11, Companion of the Bath, (Military Division).

F. W. Davey, Collector of Customs, officer of the Order of the British Empire.

D. M. Duncan, former superintendent of schools in Winnipeg, officer of the Order of the British Empire.

First Class Master Gunner Herbert Collings, Royal Canadian Artillery, member of the Order of the British Empire.

Commissioner Victualling Officer J. G. B. Horne, Royal Canadian Navy, member of the Order of the British Empire.

Major-General Ashton has forty-two years militia service, having begun in 1893 as a second lieutenant in the Dufferin Rifles. During the Great War he organized the 38th Battalion and following command of a reserve brigade and of the Shorncliffe training area, he was recalled to Canada to become Adjutant-General.

Later, after serving as Quartermaster-General of the Canadian Militia, he was appointed District Officer Commanding at Toronto. Major-General Ashton was appointed to No. 11 District, with headquarters at Victoria.

Mr. Davey has been in the Customs and Excise Department here for forty-five years. His Dominion Government service totals forty-seven years, including two years in the Post Office previous to his entry into the Customs Department.

He was born in Cornwall, England, but has spent fifty-five years of his life in Victoria. Mr. Davey is an active churchman and a leading member of the Victoria Lawn Bowling Club.

Mr. Duncan retired from the position of superintendent of schools in Winnipeg at the end of last year, after forty years of service in the teaching profession. He started as (Turn to Page 10, Col. 5)

Recommendations of Hyndman Commission to Assist Ex-service Men Laid Before Commons

Ottawa, June 3.—Sweeping recommendations designed to assist the government in solving employment conditions among ex-service men in Canada, are contained in the report of the Hyndman commission, tabled this afternoon in the House of Commons by Hon. D. M. Sutherland, Minister of Pensions and National Health.

The report followed an exhaustive inquiry conducted by Mr. Justice J. H. Hyndman, chairman of the pension appeal court, Colonel C. Basil Price of Montreal, and W. B. Woods of Toronto.

Chief among the recommendations is one suggesting establishment of a commission, voluntary by preference, which, appointed for eighteen months, would study and give effect to many proposals for amelioration of conditions.

Such a commission would contain three persons, one named by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, one by joint approval of the Canadian Legion and the Army and Navy Veterans' Association and one by the government.

The government's nominee would act as chairman and would also be appointed an ex-officio member of the commission to be set up under the Employment and Social Insurance Act. This body would be known as the Veterans' Assistance Commission.

The report recommends that in each regional office of the employment and social insurance commission (Turn to Page 10, Col. 7)

ROBERT BAIRD PASSES AWAY

Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs For B.C. Closes Distinguished Career

Robert Baird, Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs for British Columbia, died at the Jubilee Hospital at 11:15 o'clock yesterday morning. He had been ailing for the last couple of years. He was fifty-nine.

As an outstanding authority of all Canada on municipal affairs and finances, he was nationally known. Mr. Baird was born at Wick, near Peterborough, Ontario. His education was finished with a course at the University of Toronto. After graduation, he entered the Merchants Bank of Canada, and was eventually transferred to the western field, first to Rosedale, Saskatchewan, and then here on the coast.

About that time the municipal problem was beginning to arise in British Columbia government circles and the late W. J. Bower, as Attorney-General, had been looking for someone with the ability and training to take the details of the problem off his hands. Mr. Bower thought he saw the man he wanted in Mr. Baird, with his college and bank training. So, in June, 1914, when the B.C. government inaugurated its municipal branch, the appointment of Mr. Baird as inspector in charge was announced.

The building-up of the municipal branch since that time, with the gradual formulation of policy and the development of relations between the municipalities and the provincial government, the study and analysis of municipal problems and the accumulation of a vast body of accurate information on municipal standards, was Mr. Baird's important contribution to the machinery of government in this province. What he created in the department here has been looked to as a model by governments elsewhere when their time came to face municipal problems.

KARPIS AIDE ADMITS GUILT

Volney Davis Tells Judge He Helped Abduct St. Paul, Minn., Banker

St. Paul, Minn., June 3.—Volney Davis, thirty-three, considered by police one of the most dangerous members of the Barker-Karpis gang, pleaded guilty here to-day to a part in the $200,000 kidnapping of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker.

Davis formally admitted his guilt a few hours after he had been brought to the U.S. Department of Justice branch here.

Arraigned before Federal Judge M. J. Joyce, the fugitive gangster listened to the lengthy reading of the indictment in the same courtroom in which his erstwhile pal, Arthur (Doc) Barker, recently was convicted of kidnapping Edward G. Bremer, wealthy St. Paul banker, last year.

At the conclusion of the reading, Davis answered "guilty." He was not represented by counsel.

WELL DRESSED
Togged out in a gray suit, with blue shirt and tie and brown and grey suede shoes, Davis listened unmoved before the bar of justice while alert guards eyed him narrowly.

New French Liner Clips Three Hours Off Atlantic Mark

World's Largest Vessel Averages 29.68 Knots on Maiden Trip From Southampton to New York; Covered 748 Miles in Last Day For Another Record

New York, June 3.—With the Atlantic blue ribbon, her prize on her maiden voyage, the mammoth new French liner Normandie was alongside her Hudson River pier to-day at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, E.D.T., her first triumphant voyage at an end.

The world's largest ship came up the harbor amid a wild acclaim from diving airplanes and the blast of sirens on hundreds of welcoming craft.

Her voyage was the fastest ever made by a transatlantic liner, four days, eleven hours, thirty-five minutes.

Averaging officially 29.68 knots from Southampton to the Ambrose Light in the outer harbor at 11:02 a.m. E.D.T., but had to remain for hours for a flood tide before she could sail past Gotham's skyscrapers to the new Hudson dock.

The glimmering vessel anchored at quarantine awaiting a tide. Besides the mythical blue ribbon—won for the fastest time across the ocean—the Normandie set these records: (Turn to Page 10, Col. 5)

Bouissou Cabinet to Go Before Chamber With Finance Plans

Paris, June 3.—Joseph Caillaux, new Minister of Finance in the cabinet of Fernand Bouissou, started a clean-up of France's financial house to-day ten minutes after he had received the transfer of authority from Louis Germain-Martin, retiring minister.

The new minister announced his intention to maintain the franc and to prepare for stabilization, plans for which will be included in the ministerial declaration to be read to-morrow.

Establishment of a disciplinary organization of banks is planned to revise the stock exchange list and approve future listings and security issues.

Another commission will draft budget economies. Buying orders for government bonds paralyzed the bourse during the first half-hour of trading because of traders' belief there was no immediate prospect for devaluation.

These bonds soared with the 3 per cent rentes climbing from 76.00 to 81.85 in the first fifteen minutes of trading.

Stocks jumped almost uniformly with Bank of Paris shares falling 70 francs and Suez Canal shares declining from 20,700 to 19,000. (Turn to Page 10, Col. 5)

SALUTES FIRED

Canadian Press
Ottawa, June 3.—A twenty-one gun royal salute to King George on his seventieth birthday was fired to-day from Parliament Hill as Ottawa enjoyed a partial holiday in honor of the occasion. The House of Commons, which had decided to sit, planned to rise early in the afternoon and resume its session in the evening.

GUY KIBBEE MAY VISIT

Movie Actor at Seattle on H. F. Alexander; Ship to Call Here

Guy Kibbee, motion picture actor, and his wife, arrived in Seattle to-day aboard the Pacific Steamship Lines steamer H. F. Alexander, from Los Angeles and San Francisco. Mr. Kibbee, it is expected, will visit Victoria during his stay in the northwest, for he is on a holiday tour.

The H. F. Alexander, which is opening the fast summer coastwise service of the Pacific Steamship Lines, will make her first southbound trip of the year from Victoria next Tuesday night, sailing from Seattle at 9 o'clock and clearing two hours later for San Francisco and Los Angeles and San Diego.

The majority of the southbound passengers by the H. F. Alexander are on the way to the California Pacific International Exposition at San Diego.

NETHERLANDS CABINET SPLIT
The Hague, Netherlands, June 3.—(Associated Press)—Minister of Economics Steenbergh resigned to-day in disagreement with Premier Hendrik Colijn and other members of the cabinet on the devaluation issue. His resignation created a sensation in parliamentary circles. Dr. H. C. J. H. Gieseler, a gold-standard advocate, was named to succeed Steenbergh.

Lady Tupper, Vancouver, Dies

Widow of Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper Passes Away in Seventy-seventh Year

Vancouver, June 3.—Lady Janet Tupper, widow of Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, a pioneer resident of British Columbia and outstanding life member of the Imperial Order of Daughters of the Empire, died here on Saturday.

A funeral service will be at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from Christ Church Cathedral, Rev. C. C. Owen officiating.

Lady Tupper was born in Fickou, N.S., the daughter of Hon. James MacDonald, Chief Justice. She was married in 1879 and came to Vancouver in 1897. Sir Charles died in 1927.

Three sons and three daughters are: Reginald H. Tupper, barrister; Mrs. C. M. Merritt, Mrs. G. H. Kirkpatrick, Vancouver; Mrs. G. C. Holland, Victoria; Charles Tupper, Vernon; Major James Tupper, commanding officer of N Division, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Ottawa.

SOVEREIGN IS CHEERED IN LONDON

Seventieth Birthday of King George, Marked by Trooping of Colors, Brings Display of Loyalty From Throng; Sovereign Accompanied by Four Sons; Flood of Messages From All Parts of World Reaches His Majesty

Canadian Press and Associated Press
London, June 3.—The King, astride a bay horse, rode to-day with his four sons at the head of a column of crack cavalry and foot soldiers in the ancient ceremony of trooping the colors as a mark of his completion of the Biblical span of three score years and ten.

All the Empire celebrated the King's seventieth birthday anniversary, and in London the ceremonies centred around the King himself.

SALUTED BY EMPIRE TO-DAY

KING GEORGE V.

His Majesty wore the scarlet and gold uniform of colonel-in-chief of the Irish Guards. He saluted right and left with a white gloved hand as he rode from Buckingham Palace to the Horseguards Parade and back.

From all sides came cries "God bless you, sir!" "Many happy returns!" "Long may you live!" The Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Gloucester and the Duke of Kent, like their father, wore military uniforms and the blue ribbon of the Order of the Garter.

It was the first time all four sons had participated with their father in such a ceremony.

Liberals Plan To Rewrite B.N.A. Act

Canadian Press
Newmarket, Ont., June 3.—Promises the Liberal Party, it returned to power, would rewrite the British North America Act to bring about legal social reform, was made by Hon. Ian MacKenzie, M.P., Vancouver, speaking here Saturday.

A conference, he told the North York Liberal Association's annual meeting, lasting from two months to a year would precede the revision.

The programme of social reform would be enacted only when the federal government had full jurisdiction, he added.

Suspicion For Weyerhaeuser Abduction Turns Away From Karpis Mob; Three Men Who Used Seattle Hotel Telephone Sought

Tacoma, Wash., June 3.—Survivors of the Barker-Karpis mob to-day faded from the picture of the kidnapping of nine-year-old George Weyerhaeuser, with increasing indications the $200,000 match was being laid at the door of Pacific Northwest criminals.

Volney Davis, henchman of the notorious Alvin Karpis, pleaded guilty in St. Paul, Minn., to-day to a conspiracy charge in the $200,000 kidnapping of Edward G. Bremer, and federal authorities there said they were convinced he had no connection with the Weyerhaeuser case.

Camp Strikers Leave To-night

Have Fund of $1,500 to Finance Vancouver-to-Ottawa Journey

Vancouver, June 3.—Plans for the striking relief camp workers' march to Ottawa will be completed to-day, strike officials announced. They reported they had collected more than $1,500 in their unauthorized tag day Saturday to aid them on the journey east.

Tentative plans are to leave to-night about 10 o'clock in two groups, one party going through Edmonton and Saskatoon, the other through Calgary, Medicine Hat and Regina.

SILVER BILL IS RULED OUT

Ottawa, June 3.—Thomas Reid's bill to remonetize silver was ruled out of order in the House of Commons this afternoon by Speaker James Bowman.

The Speaker said it would make additional demands on the public treasury and fall under the rule which prohibits private members from initiating proposals for the expenditure of public money.

Under the bill the new Westminster Liberal would have increased the silver content of the Canadian dollar coin and made silver currency legal tender in payments of any amount.

The greatest enemy of health

Certainly it kills enthusiasm! Yet it can be banished by eating a

The "bulk" in All-Bran is much like that in leafy vegetables. How much pleasanter to eat this deli-

This advertisement is the fourth of a series, pointing out how you can meet us half-way in making Canada's streets and highways safer.

How to Prepare for SAFE SUMMER DRIVING

NOW that Spring is here, we're all looking forward to the warm, pleasant days ahead. But don't forget—warm weather makes a difference to your car, too!

Make sure that the engine now has "summer grade" oil in the crankcase. The transmission and "rear end", too, require a heavier lubricant for safe summer driving. Every chassis fitting should be thoroughly "greased". It's a good idea to give your car a seasonal "tightening-up" at this time—to have the brakes adjusted—and the ignition system checked over.

Timely attention to these inexpensive precautions assures you of dependable, safe motoring this summer.

No Peace Ballot In the Dominion

League Society Decides Instead on Educational Campaign

Ottawa, June 2.—Delegates to the League of Nations Society in Canada went home at the week-end after turning down proposals from various branch societies for a peace ballot in Canada similar to the recent ballot in Great Britain by referring the matter to the national executive council for deferred discussion.

The educational field apart from peace ballots and questionnaires to members of Parliament to determine members' stand on foreign policy was favored as a course for the society at present by a majority of delegates at the final session Saturday of the 1935 convention.

"There is not sufficient clarification of public opinion in Canada at the present time for a peace ballot," J. A.

PREACHER HOLDS RATTLESNAKES

St. Charles, Va., June 2.—Three big rattlesnakes refused to bite Rev. George Hensley, Holiness revivalist who says his "faith cure" is healing a previously bitten arm, as an excited throng shouted and prayed at open-air services yesterday.

Hensley and five other persons handled the snakes at a revival at Ramsey, near here, but neither the preacher nor his followers was harmed.

This the revivalist attributed to his prayers.
A crowd estimated at 1,000 was present as Hensley opened the cage with his right hand, holding his already bitten left hand quietly at his side. Mr. Hensley's swollen left arm continued to improve as he had promised, although it remained swollen.

Lawrence Book To Be Out in 1950

London, June 3.—The late Lawrence of Arabia left a manuscript recording his life in the Royal Air Force, it was disclosed yesterday with instructions it should not be published before 1950.
The manuscript, entitled "The Mint," is described as "of forceful character" containing comment on the Royal Air force which makes immediate publication impossible.

HIGHER SPINACH DUTY

Ottawa, June 3 (Canadian Press).—The Department of National Revenue to-day announced an increase of 1½¢ a pound on the invoice value of spinach in Canadian funds for duty valuation. The increase is effective in Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island on all shipments after May 31.

TWO LOST LIVES IN THE SAHARA

Bodies of Englishman and Woman Found; Two Frenchmen Rescued

Algiers, Algeria, June 3.—A searching party found the bodies of an Englishman and an Englishwoman on the scorching Sahara sands yesterday and rescued two Frenchmen near death from thirst.
The woman, Mrs. Knight, widow of an English aviator who committed suicide recently at Agades, French West Africa, had slashed her wrist, apparently in an attempt to end her torture from thirst and heat.

A party of four—Mrs. Knight, Peyton, an English resident of Switzerland, and two Frenchmen, Kneebret and Cheverus—left Agades by truck May 22 for Tamanrasset, Tawarek. After the quartette were missing four days a party left Agades to search for them. It found the Frenchmen in a serious condition beside the truck near a dried-up riverbed.

No Title For Canadian Premier

Ottawa, June 3.—Expectation in some quarters on Parliament Hill that Prime Minister R. B. Bennett would personally figure in the King's birthday awards proved to be unfounded when the honors list was made public.

It is understood since he conducted the Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa in 1932 Mr. Bennett has been marked out for signal honor at the hands of the sovereign, and that on his recent visit to London he was urged by a member of the royal family to accept a high honor.

J. Power, M.P.P., Dies in Quebec

Quebec, June 3.—Joseph Power, forty-nine, Liberal member of the Quebec Legislature since 1927, died at his home here Saturday after a lengthy illness. He was brother of Hon. Gerard Power, member of the Quebec liquor commission, and Major C. G. Power, member of parliament for Quebec south.
His death brought the number of vacancies in the Assembly up to ten.

SUMMER BRINGS OWN TYPES OF DISEASES

Seasonal Infections at This Time Include Infantile Paralysis, Sleeping Sickness, Whooping Cough and Typhoid Fever

BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN

For every season there are certain diseases. Climatic conditions are likely to be associated with special hazards.

Thus in winter freezing and accidents from skating are most likely to occur. Scarlet fever and measles may be most prevalent in spring, and begin to diminish by June.

Pneumonia occurs particularly from January through March. Meningitis usually reaches its peak during the late winter or spring. Sunstroke is another seasonal disease.

With the coming of warm weather, we begin to face conditions resulting from excessive heat, from motor vehicle accidents, and from drowning, as well as certain infectious diseases which are always more prevalent in summer.

Medical investigations have shown that two serious crippling diseases always appear more frequently in summer and disappear with the coming of the first cold weather. These are infantile paralysis and epidemic encephalitis.

Infantile paralysis is a crippling disease that affects children chiefly. It involves inflammation of the front portion of the spine and brings about paralysis of the limbs.

Occasionally there is paralysis of the muscles involved in breathing, and fatalities are not infrequent.

The epidemic inflammation of the brain called encephalitis, and more popularly known as sleeping sickness, is strictly a summer disease. The greatest epidemic of this condition in recent years occurred in St. Louis two years ago, but last year there were minor epidemics in Illinois and Indiana.

The most common infectious disease of childhood which is prevalent in the summer is whooping cough. The incidence of this disease begins to climb about the first of May and reaches its peak in July and August. It is more serious for infants and young babies than it is for older children.

Typhoid fever is always a warm weather disease. It is associated in our modern times especially with motoring and camping, because motorists and campers persist in drinking water from unknown sources and in purchasing food and milk that may be contaminated.

The Greatest of all USED CAR SALES

You can sweep aside all pre-conceived ideas of how much a good reconditioned car should cost. This sale, which began this morning, establishes a new level of prices . . . and they are at least 25 per cent lower than the prevailing prices of 1935! This drastic lowering of prices is the result of Chevrolet's success this spring. More new Chevrolet cars have been sold . . . more reconditioned cars are available than we have room for in our showrooms. There is only one thing to do . . . lower prices to such an extent that buyers won't hesitate to trade in their old cars and save the difference. See the cars in our showrooms and your own judgment will tell you can't afford to miss such savings!

SEVENTY YEARS OLD

THE SEVENTIETH BIRTHDAY OF THE
King finds him, if possible, even more deeply entrenched in the affections of his subjects than he has been at any period in his reign. Striking proof of this was furnished a few weeks ago on the occasion of his silver jubilee when, from all quarters of the vast British Commonwealth, went evidence of the intimate sentimental relationship which prevails between him and the people who acknowledge him as their sovereign. Nor is this regard confined to the far-flung British Dominions and colonies. In every foreign country he is an object of general respect and esteem, not merely as a constitutional monarch but as a man who is inspired by a real concern for the welfare of civilization.

The ties which bind the King to the subjects of his own kingdom are different from those which normally exist between ruler and subjects. They differ in many respects even from those which marked the reign of his predecessors. While there always has been in Great Britain a deep-seated veneration for the tradition of the throne as an institution and symbol, and a corresponding essential respect for its occupant, history has shown that this attitude for many generations has been secondary to the insistence of the public upon its civil and religious liberties. No institution, no matter how venerable or potent, can last which substantially invades these prerogatives. The King has been meticulously correct in the exercise of his constitutional duties, and the institution he represents has not been weakened in the slightest measure on that ground.

But we must go further for the explanation of the sovereign's sustained popularity. We must go past the qualities of kingship he has displayed, and discover the answer in the human equation. His fine sense of humanity has brought him into closer contact with the plain people than any of the royal line which preceded him. His interests, sympathies and personal intimacies always have disregarded factors and circumstances which impressed King Edward and Queen Victoria. These never have been dispelled by the peculiar atmosphere which surrounds the throne. They were too firmly implanted in him, perhaps, when as a sailor prince he served on many stations, became familiar with the people and conditions of many countries and developed an understanding of human nature such as few of his constitutional advisers have had the opportunity of doing. There, too, perhaps, he developed the sound commonsense, the breadth of mind and the diversity of interests which are of more importance to a successful ruler than any measure of intellectual brilliance. He expresses, in fact, a true cross-section of the main characteristics of his subjects who realize instinctively how close he is to them.

Nowhere during the last twenty-five years has there been a ruler, president or political leader who has been so remote from public criticism. The war destroyed the powerful dynasties of Russia, Germany and Austro-Hungary and Turkey and replaced them with dictatorships. The aftermath compromised others. Presidents have had to ride the waves of popular disfavor, some of them into Davy Jones's locker, and political leader after leader has gone into oblivion. Great Britain has been wracked by numerous crises, some of which in other countries would have involved the overthrow of dynasties and institutions, but the King has serenely kept his place, and to-day on his birthday will receive from the people under his rule felicitations as general and unreservedly sincere as those which ever have been tendered to him in the last twenty-five years.

THE NORMANDIE DOES IT

TO FRANCE HAS BEEN TRANSFERRED
the blue ribbon of the Atlantic—the giant liner Normandie has beaten the best mark of Germany's Bremen by nearly three hours, despite a little mechanical trouble which delayed her somewhat. On her voyage from Southampton to Ambrose Lightship she consumed 107 hours and thirty-three minutes compared with the Bremen's 110 hours and twenty-seven minutes. She also set another record—the fastest day's run, covering 748 miles at an average speed of 29.92 knots.

French marine engineering will naturally be elated over the performance of the Normandie, and there is every justification for it. From Southampton to New York in less than four and a half days will be a good mark for Britain's Queen Mary to shoot at. But it may be assumed, however, that France will not be satisfied with the time on the ship's maiden voyage. The engineers of the Normandie know what she can do under normal working conditions with a full complement of passengers and freight; they know now what, if any, mechanical defects developed and what will be necessary to correct them. So it will not be surprising if either on the return journey or on some subsequent crossing the time will be nearer four days than four and a half.

THE WHIRLIGIG OF TIME

DURING THE GREAT WAR MR. RAMsay MacDonald was known as a pacifist and plumed the very depths of temporary public disfavor. He was stigmatized as being everything from a pro-German to a Bolshevik. Subsequently, as the leader of the Socialist party, he became Prime Minister of the United Kingdom, a post he still holds but, according to popular report, is about to vacate. When he was sworn in as first minister on the second occasion it was to head a national government whose duty was to save the pound.

In France Joseph Caillaux has been appointed Minister of Finance in the new government which was dedicating itself to the salvation of the franc. During the war M. Caillaux, who had been a radical Prime Minister of France several times, was a pacifist like Mr. MacDonald. He was placed under arrest as a pro-German and exiled to South America. Now he holds one of the most important portfolios in the government and may wind up as Premier. Incidentally, one of his colleagues in the cabinet is Marshal Petain, who was commander-in-chief of the French armies about the time M. Caillaux was branded as an enemy of his country.

MR. ROBERT BAIRD

yesterday after a long and trying illness Victoria lost a sterling citizen and the province a highly-competent public servant. The sympathy of a very wide circle of friends in many parts of Canada will go out to his family.

More than twenty years ago, after several years' service with the Merchants' Bank in Ontario and Saskatchewan, Mr. Baird entered the service of the provincial government and rose to the position of Inspector of Municipalities, a post which became one of Deputy Minister when the Pattullo government created a special portfolio of Municipal Affairs with Hon. Wells Gray as its chief.

It is not overstating the case to say that few persons, if any, in Canada, were better posted on municipal government and its intricacies than Mr. Baird. By reason of his duties, which frequently took him to all parts of British Columbia, he became intimate with practically all the provincial civic leaders and their difficulties; his knowledge and experience were available to them for the solution of their problems.

Mr. Baird's annual reports as Inspector of Municipalities were always models of lucidity and thoroughness. Besides being statistical pictures of municipal affairs, they embodied advice which made them valuable documents for reference from time to time. Not only the government, but civic officers all over the province, therefore, will feel they have sustained a serious loss through his death.

His official duties and his devotion to labor in the cause of Freemasonry left Mr. Baird very little time for participation in other activities, although until the state of his health denied him even moderately vigorous exercise, he enjoyed a round of golf, and in later days he kept up his interest by watching others perform in the various championship tournaments.

As a Free Mason, Mr. Baird was an ornament to the craft. He was an accomplished ritualist, fully versed on the history of the order, and in many phases, while his frequent addresses on Masonic symbolism revealed long and careful study. He was a Past Grand Master of the Lodge of British Columbia, and only recently the Supreme Grand Council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite at Montreal conferred on him the distinction of Thirty-Third and last degree. The order will sorely miss him.

Mr. Baird possessed a quiet, unassuming, and essentially kindly disposition. Those who were permitted to know him intimately came to understand and appreciate his fine qualities of heart and mind. To them his death represents a keen personal loss.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

A PUZZLER

At least it can be said that the British authorities are doing something to check the slaughter on the roads. What puzzles most common folk, motorists or pedestrians, is to discover why on earth any ordinary person should want to travel more than half a mile in a minute.

JUST FOLKS

By Edgar A. Guest

RESTING SPELL

Books in the corner, an old arm chair,
The mother knitting, and all is well;
A bowl of apples to munch while there,
And the home is blessed with a resting spell.

Far away from the city's hum,
Done with gossip and hue and cry;
Done with dreading what is to come,
At home for an evening and glad am I!

No one to flatter and no one to fear
And nothing to offer to buy or sell;
Just mother and I and the children here
Safe and happy and all is well!

It may be that fortune and fame may hold Truer delights, but I cannot tell;
But surely at times must the brave and bold Hunger for home and a resting spell.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By ALICE MICHAELIS

REVERIE

What could be more splendid Than to be so strong
You would need no creature
Out of Earth's vast throng?
You would ask no favor,
You would seek no aid;
Going forward gladly,
Proud and unafraid!

Yet, what could be sweeter
Than to turn with trust
To a friend you treasure, Wholly true and just?
Thy a trace of weakness
Might seem very dear,
If arms strong to hold you Waited, open, near.

A THOUGHT

Repentance, to be of any avail, must work a change of heart and conduct.—T. L. Cuyler.

Loose Ends

The benefits of June—and how they are achieved—the superior honesty of British politicians—the sad illusion of our good Tories—and the truth about us Canadians.

By BRUCE HUTCHISON.

JUNE DAYS

TO-DAY I had intended to dedicate this column to the scenic beauty of Victoria at the first of June. I had intended to mention the broom and the hawthorn trees and the first roses. But just as I was working myself up to a fine outburst, my eye caught an article by Grace Lockhart in The Vancouver Province on a scenic beauty which strikes me as much more spectacular.

Mrs. Lockhart has been revealing to the astonished public of Vancouver just how much toil, thought and sheer genius goes into the scenic beauty which is all about us, hardly noticed. She says that these natural beauties which we see in our offices and on our streets are not achieved, as we imagine, without toil. Why, the well-dressed young woman, she announces, makes up her face four times a day, and that is a minimum.

Those results which we take as a matter of course all require "thought and planning," and the job must be undertaken early in the morning and carried on persistently during the entire day. This may be annoying when a girl has to give some little time to her work in the office which, as Mrs. Lockhart says, is the worst part of a job—so often it interferes with one's simple pleasures.

But making up the face four times in office hours is only the beginning. In the evening the girl must "change her personality." Now here is something that we have never appreciated. How many young men have realized, when they took the girl to the movies and thought she looked all right, that they were gazing on an altered creature, that she had changed her personality with her dress after dinner?

In fact, at dinner time the real job of being beautiful really commences. All the work during the day has been mere preparation. You must "repaint your nails a different color to echo your brightest lipstick; curl your eyelashes; comb down your bangs; look and be a different girl."

But even after an evening at a party your work isn't finished. You have to put your face to bed. You have to wash it for the fifteenth time; remove your eyelashes, your eye shadow, your lipstick and your nail polish; rub in the cool astringent cream; follow it up with the cream that works all night; rub oil around your nails and then, if you have the strength, you can go to bed for "tomorrow is another day and your face will be waiting."

Remember those things as you walk about Victoria, in these first lush gorgeous days of June. Remember how nature has to toil far into the night to produce these glories, and during office hours, too.

HIGHER POLITICS

THERE CAN NO LONGER BE ANY doubt that the politicians of England are much smoother than our poor innocents. I mean, look at the contrast between them in this present year of political crisis. Over in England the ruling caste works with a finesse which comes only with centuries of ruling. Whenever it needs to go to the country to get re-elected it doesn't raise some small issue like economic recovery, or national credit. It raises the issue of national survival.

Whenever it has gone to the country in the last decade it has always been able to scare half the population under the bed by the fear of foreign invasion or imminent disaster to everyone. Last time it got elected in order to save the pound. If the pound couldn't be saved, held on gold, the people were told, the country would be ruined immediately and every poor widow's mite rendered worthless. The fact that the ruling caste, having got re-elected, immediately took the pound off gold and conditions began to improve, didn't embarrass anyone, because it was all done with such gentility.

Before that it got elected by finding a letter which indicated that the Communists of Russia were conspiring with the Communists of England to achieve a bloody revolution. The populace again was scared under the bed and any man with black whiskers was suspect. The fact that the famous letter turned out afterwards to be a forgery didn't embarrass anyone in the least, for it was all in a good cause.

Previous to that, Mr. Lloyd George, at the head of the ruling caste for the moment, carried the country overwhelmingly on the promise to hang the Kaiser. The fact that the Kaiser has lived to a ripe old age, in every comfort, has never bothered Mr. Lloyd George or the electorate.

Now, by a curious coincidence, the National Government finds that it is about to go to the country this year in the face of a threatened air invasion by Germany. The survival of the government obviously is essential if England isn't to be bombed out of the sea. In the face of such a menace, of course, the country will stand solidly behind the government.

The issue will be put up squarely to every Englishman—"Do you want to save your home and children?" But the only issue our poor Canadian innocents can think of is—"Do you want to save Mr. Bennett and Mr. Herbert Holt?" Instead of homes and hearth, we can think of anything more inspiring than work and wages. We really haven't begun to learn the higher arts of politics yet. But at least we maintain a proper humility in the face of superior political capacity. We always agree over here that English politicians are far more honest than our own.

PATHETIC ILLUSION

BUT THE MOST HUMOROUS thing about current British politics as it is viewed here, is the enthusiasm of all our encrusted Tories and budding Fascists for the present National Government. To it they point with pride as the only kind of a government which can save the existing economic system and put this country on its feet, the only government which can institute real economy, leave moneyed people alone and stop all this radical nonsense.

This is humorous and a trifle pathetic for the National Government of Britain is the most radical the country has ever had, has done the most revolutionary things, with that air of not doing them which is the distinguishing mark of real political capacity. Long before this the National Government of Britain has done nearly everything Mr. Bennett has tried to do under his New Deal, and, having no constitutional difficulties, has done them quietly, without a fuss. Its policy makes the new deal of Mr. Bennett seem a deep Conservative blue by comparison.

Indeed, if the good old Tories here who are demanding a similar government in Canada could get it, they would feel, after six months of it, that the end of the world had arrived. Politically speaking, they are a very radical and progressive people in England, whereas we are very conservative and backward. But over there they can accomplish revolutions while drinking their afternoon tea. Over here, when Mr. Pearson enforces a minimum wage law we wag our heads sadly and say to ourselves that this is the end of capitalism, and when a few unarmed, penniless boys from the road camps walk into Vancouver we rush out and buy a large gun and organize a grand Fascist council in the belief that the Russians are coming.

WE CANADIANS

MR. J. E. BARTON, art critic, educationist and author, has just returned to England from a lecture tour of Canada, and what he has to say about us is quite flattering. "Canadians," he says, "are highly intelligent. Student audiences at many universities from west to east delighted me by their swift uptake, their lightness of touch and their intellectual enthusiasm."

"In Canada the flow of wit is enhanced rather than retarded by the presence of women at joint dinner gatherings."

"The larger cities of the east are more cosmopolitan than ours."

naturally to some extent infected by surviving nineteenth-century ideas from England, and there is still a backwardness of Victorianism. But the keen and wonderful young people of the prairie provinces, (most likely he was referring to Calgary), unless I am much mistaken, will start a creative renaissance when the phase of economic trouble is once over."

It takes an outsider to appreciate us and our young. Not a single man in Canada, travelling about the country, would have reported that Canadians are "highly intelligent." Not one person I know would report that "the flow of wit is enhanced rather than retarded by the presence of women at joint dinner gatherings." Indeed, I have never heard anything but the most boring blarney at such dinners from both sexes. And it seems that we have been mistaken also about our young. They are not dangerous, or stupid or lazy or revolutionary, as we imagine. They have swift uptake, lightness of touch and intellectual enthusiasm. What a relief it is to find out the truth about ourselves.

WARNING!

The Times urges its correspondents to restrict their contributions to 600 words. Henceforth it positively will not print communications which exceed that length.

These letters must be plainly written on one side of the paper only, and must be accompanied by the names and addresses of the writers, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith.

Letters will not be re-written for publication. If they are not legible no attempt will be made to read them.

Letters not used will not be returned to the writers.

Letters containing offensive personal reflections will not be printed.

These rules, which henceforth will be carried out absolutely, are designed as much for the protection of our patient readers as for that of The Times.

CAUTION!

The Times will not assume responsibility for the return to the writers of articles sent for publication. It is recommended that authors send their contributions by registered mail, or by a reliable messenger.

ON TO OTTAWA

To the Editor:—Transportation to Vancouver being provided, the striking Relief Camp Workers in the city will say farewell on Sunday evening and proceed on their way to Ottawa, there to present their case.

Before leaving, we take the opportunity to thank our many friends and sympathizers for the wholehearted support and understanding they have shown toward us, especially young people's organizations, the Women's League for Social Justice, the Joint Committee of Action, and others.

All are asked to be at the C.P.R. dock on Sunday evening to see us off and bid us goodbye.

LOGGERS GIVE GENEROUSLY

To the Editor:—As a representative of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, I recently visited Alberta and Fort Albert in the interests of the institute. While in Fort Albert, and through the kindness of the officials of Blount, Stewart and Welch Limited, I obtained permission to address the men employed at Franklin River Logging Camp.

On behalf of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, I wish to take this opportunity of expressing my thanks to the loggers for their generous response to my appeal for financial assistance for the blind in the western division.

As a result of my visit, the sum of one hundred and five dollars and ninety-five cents ($105.95) was subscribed and forwarded to Vancouver headquarters. That is an excellent response, and further proof that "humanity likes to give to a worthy cause."

I also wish to thank Mr. Olson, the superintendent, and Mr. Chernoff for their kind and courteous treatment to me during my visit at the camp.

The donors may rest assured their contributions will relieve those suffering from seriously impaired vision, and in the case of the totally blind, the funds subscribed will assist the institute in bringing a little sunshine, a ray of light into their world of darkness.

as formerly, because this is what some one said to me the other day.

This slogan was abused, so a new regulation was enforced, that after one meal—the person is interviewed as to circumstances without, he is given a ticket and duly registered. Last autumn the board issued the ultimatum that no single man eligible for relief camps could feed at Sunshine Inn. The reason being, that the more men who left the city the better, as it would mean more jobs for married men, except for the relaxation of all rules during the severe weather in January—this is in force to-day.

The second point is about the closing of Sunshine Inn for the months of July, August and September. These are the vacation months. Being able to get milk daily at the Inn has been a great boon to undernourished children, both below and of school age. I believe most people would like to be assured, that these children should not be deprived of their very much needed milk in the holidays, when they cannot get it at school, as well as the small children not going without altogether.

As I worked at the Inn for some time, I was able to watch the improvements of the children's looks from the regular milk ration and then there was the preventative good work done by giving resistance against undernourishment diseases.

THE SALESMAN'S EXPERIENCE

To the Editor:—Salesmen, agents and peddlers going from door to door are usually our own citizens doing something to keep them out of the headlines.

They deserve encouragement, particularly if their wares do not conflict with those sold by our local merchants.

I had a recent experience as such a salesman and found most householders very civil and courteous.

A few experiences I had were about as follows:
A lady playing with a poodle dog was too busy to spare a moment.

Another lady enjoying a quiet smoke was similarly situated.

A nice, white-haired, elderly lady invited me in for cocoa and sandwiches, saying "It was a cold morning."

An suburban lady peered through the slats of the lookout in the door saying, "What do you want?" I had to pass her up as scenery.

I followed him in underfoot to instruct in the brotherhood of man and the Oxford Group Movement told me to "move on."

A rude fellow closed the door in my face without any explanation, but I think he had nervous indigestion and some Vancouver bonds.

Those with signs on the door, "No agents or peddlers" would obtain a lot of useful information free of cost if they removed the signs.

I didn't like when tired, hungry and sometimes discouraged to meet at the door a well-fed, well-groomed Chinaman, and receive the following questions and answers:
"What you want?" "She not in" or "she busy." "She not up." "You can't see her."
I think mothers should not instruct the children to say, "She is busy" if she is really not busy.
Next time I make the rounds I will make out a black list for the benefit of our ancient fraternal and respectable order of Knights of the Road.
In the meantime I hope the little

BRIGHT SPOTS OF LAST WEEK

Bright spots of the financial and industrial week, as reported by the Canadian Press, were as follows:

Windsor, Ont.—Expenditure of $2,000,000 on additional plant and equipment ordered by Ford Motor Car Company of Canada to permit larger production next year.

Peterborough, Ont.—Eastern Clothing Company will erect two-storey addition to their plant here at cost of $50,000.

Sidney, N.S.—Order for 7,000 tons of rails placed with Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation by C.P.R.

Hamilton, Ont.—Steel Company of Canada has re-opened its west-end plant with 230 men employed.

Vancouver—Forty-acre site on Burrard Inlet purchased by Standard Oil Company of California for a new refinery to be in operation next fall.

Toronto—Freight handled at Toronto Harbor was 30,000 tons greater in April than in same month of last year.

Port Arthur, Ont.—Pulpwood camps now being opened by timber concerns and employment will be given hundreds of men.

Niagara Falls, Ont.—Burns Manufacturing Company will open a brand plant here to manufacture cutlery.

Lachine, Que.—Pearson's Antiseptic Company of England has completed a large plant here to manufacture of various lines of chemical products.

BUFFALO GRAIN AT LOW RECORD

Associated Press.
Buffalo, N.Y., June 3.—An all-time low mark in the number of bushels of grain stored in Buffalo was believed established yesterday as brokers counted only 12,000,000 bushels in elevators.

At this time of the year, brokers said, the elevators usually hold approximately 20,000,000 bushels of grain.

The huge drop in shipments is blamed on lack of export demand and the fact that United States and Canadian grains are 20 cents a bushel higher than the world price.

Shipping records show approximately 4,500,000 bushels have been shipped down the Great Lakes to Buffalo this season. Last year, shipments for the same period exceeded the 10,000,000-bushel mark.

As 1934 was regarded as a "low" year, grain men believed that unless there is a sharp increase in grain traffic, the entire season's movement will be the lowest since 1890, when only 10,000,000 bushels were unloaded here.

DECLARE DIVIDENDS

Jameson's Anniversary Event

STORE BEGINS SELLING EVENT

Jameson's Electrical Limited Observes Anniversary

Jameson's Electrical Limited, 1121 Douglas Street, announces a storewide merchandising event in connection with the anniversary of the inception of the firm here.

The popular electrical firm entered business here in March, 1932, under the management of G. E. MacDonald. Originally it was located in the Jameson Motors Limited building on Broughton Street. Within seven months the business had grown to such an extent that it was necessary to seek larger premises and these were found at 717 Fort Street.

A year ago the firm purchased the business of Hawkins and Hayward and moved to the premises at the corner of Douglas and View Streets then occupied by that company.

Throughout the store General Electric products—radios, washers, refrigerators, ranges and all kinds of appliances—are featured. Two floors of electrical merchandise are on display. In addition there is an electrical engineering department and a fully-equipped radio service and repair department.

The steady growth of Jameson's

G. E. MacDonald

Electrical has been founded upon a consistent policy of maintaining the highest standards of quality and of service to the general public.

"Everywhere, General Electric products enjoy a reputation for quality," said Mr. MacDonald to-day. "It is our policy to back up this quality with the finest service possible. The response from the public constitutes a warm endorsement of this policy."

C.P.R. And Bays' Tennis Team Tie

C.P.R. and J.B.A.A. tennis teams played to a four-all draw in the friendly match at the C.P.R. courts this week-end.

The C.P.R. won three of the four men's and women's doubles, but lost three in the mixed to remain in a deadlock.

Results, with the C.P.R. players mentioned first, follow:

Mrs. Bourne and Miss Borrowman won from Mrs. Thomas and Miss Cheer, 6-1, 3-6, 6-2.

Miss Drysdale and Miss Copas won from Miss Newman and Taylor, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4.

H. Bourne and R. Ard lost to Temple and Ralls, 6-1, 6-4.

A. Knight and G. Ford won from Bull and Thomas, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4.

MIXED

Mrs. Bourne and Bourne lost to Miss Cheer and Temple, 4-6, 6-3, 6-1.

"FOLLOW THE BIRDS TO VICTORIA"

One of the new roadside signs of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau urging tourists to "follow the birds to Victoria." The sign has been placed between Salinas and San Diego to catch the eye of travelers to the San Diego Exposition. Seagulls suspended beyond the sign emphasize the "follow the birds" message.

Miss Borrowman and Ard lost to Mrs. Thomas and Ralls, 6-3, 6-4.

Miss Drysdale and Knight lost to Miss Taylor and Thomas, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

Miss Copas and Ford won from Miss Newman and Bull, 6-3, 5-6, 6-4.

LOCAL COUPLE IN ACCIDENT

Lily Barnes, seventeen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barnes, 1250 Union Street, suffered extensive injuries to her foot which may necessitate amputation in an accident in Nanaimo yesterday afternoon.

Didrikson, girl wonder athlete from Texas, Saturday, said she would give up her plans to obtain an amateur status in golf and sign a contract with a golf manufacturing house to promote the game as a professional.

Miss Didrikson was denied amateur status by the United States Golf Association recently.

Miss Barnes had her foot crushed when the motorcycle on which she was riding with Jack Summers, 1981 Carick Street, was in collision with a car at the corner of Commercial and Nichol streets in the island city.

Both Victorians were brought to the Jubilee Hospital yesterday evening after receiving preliminary attention in the hospital at Nanaimo.

Complete details of the accident were not available, but according to Provincial Police in Nanaimo, Mr. Summers and Miss Barnes were on a ride from Victoria and were in the collision shortly after reaching the coal centre.

The car was driven by a Nanaimo man named Bradshaw, it was reported.

WON TENNIS TROPHY

Miss Barnes and Mr. Summers are being attended here by Dr. Thomas McPherson.

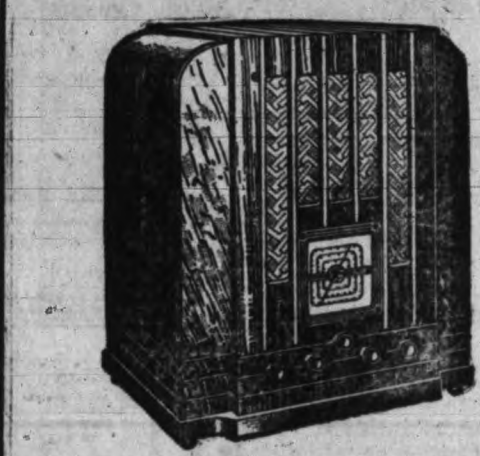

Miss Barnes is a well-known athlete of the city and during the last few years has won honors in tennis matches here. In 1933 she lifted the Pooley cup, emblematic of the junior city championship. Her accident, unfortunately, has terminated her career on the courts.

Mr. Summers' injuries were not reported serious. They were confined to general bruises about the head and body.

HELEN MOODY SCORES WIN

Wyebridge, England, June 3.—Making the first start of her comeback campaign, Helen Willis Moody, former world's tennis champion, trounced Miss J. M. Notley of England, 6-2, 6-0, in the second round of the St. George's Hill tournament today.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER SLOAN

PREMATURE BABIES TAKE LONG TIME TO "CATCH UP"

It is not to be expected that a premature baby will measure up to the ordinary 1-pound-at-birth baby, until the child has passed the fifth year. The lower the baby's birth weight, the more difficult it is for him to reach normal standards. Likewise the baby who weighed so little at birth, is obviously much less than a "normal" aged child and it should not be considered to be.

"My baby was three pounds at birth," writes Mrs. R. "She is now sixteen months old and weighs twenty-two and one-half pounds. She has eleven teeth and walks across the room without support."

(It would seem more sensible to consider this baby about fourteen months old, for she was probably at least two months premature. In the case feeding becomes simplified, since one feeds according to the probable age, not the number of months since birth, and the development is more in accordance with normal standards.) But to continue.

"At 6 a.m. she has a dish of cream of wheat and a glass of milk. At 9 a.m. she has orange juice and cod liver oil. She naps then for half an hour. At 10.30 to 11 she has a glass of milk and six to eight tablespoons of vegetable and an egg yolk. At 2 p.m. she has another glass of milk, and some crackers. At 5 p.m. she has cereal, apple sauce and milk."

"Do you think she is getting the right thing to eat? She also gets custard, gelatin or tapioca pudding about three times a week. I have your leaflet on feeding from twelve to eighteen months. I give her very little meat, sometimes only about three teaspoons a week. How shall I go about breaking her of the pacifier habit? She cries and will not go to sleep without it."

The baby's weight is good and so is her physical development. If you are consulting the leaflet at all you know you are using the right food. But at this age three meals a day are enough and you could distribute your present menu this way.

7 a.m., cereal, glass of milk.
11 a.m., egg, or meat—best is excellent for the child—steamed vegetables, pudding made of milk for dessert.
5 p.m., a glass of milk and two

FOUND COUNTRY MINUS POVERTY

Java Impressed Lady Baden-Powell in Her Travels Around the World

Montreal, June 2.—Of all the countries visited by Lord and Lady Baden-Powell, Chief Scout and Chief Guide, during their world tour, the one which stood out in Lady Baden-Powell's memory, she told a reporter here, was Java, the Netherlands possession in the Indian Ocean, with a population of 40,000,000 where no one was in want.

"I might say there isn't a poor person in all of Java," Lady Baden-Powell remarked. "Of course, the natives' diet is frugal—a handful of rice and a couple of bananas is sufficient to keep them each day—but we could learn a lot from the attitude of these eastern people. Their kindness, their friendly spirit and their goodness shine from their eyes. We got a marvelous reception everywhere, but Java stands out in my memory."

Since leaving England last October Lord and Lady Baden-Powell have visited Toulon, Gibraltar, Port Said, Aden, Ceylon, Java, "a delightful place called Thursday Island," Australia, New Zealand (which the Chief Guide thought the loveliest country of all), San Francisco, Seattle and cities across Canada, seeing scouts and guides at every stop.

"The conglomeration of race represented in our ranks—Armenians, feet second, proving that a child is Arab, Somali, Indians, Jews and British," Lady Baden-Powell commented, "was no less interesting than the variety of eastern religions of the Scouts and Guides. Parsis, Brahmins, Mohammedans, Hindus, Tamils, Singhalese and Burghers (the last the religion of the Dutch East Indies), all stood side by side in perfect accord, proving that a child is a child, the world over with no barriers, hatreds or distrusts to overcome."

"That is the chief aim of the guide and scout movement, to cement friendship between the children of all nations so that when they grow up and become the leading women and men of their communities they will be free from any prejudice whatever, whether of race or of religion."

DEGREE NO BAR FOR MARRIAGES

Canadian College Girls Declare Fallacy of "Blue-stocking" Idea

Canadian Press
Montreal, June 2.—The old idea, still prevalent in many quarters, that a college education lessens a girl's chances of becoming a bride, is scoffed at by women university graduates here.

"Nothing can be further from the truth," declared one happily married college girl who graduated ten years ago. "Nine out of ten of my best college friends are to-day happily married."

"Most writers of romance who speak slightly of the college graduate's chance of marriage have in the back of their minds a picture of an incorrigible blue-stocking. Blue-stockings are not the product of any university; they are born, not made. And very often college work wonders with a born blue-stocking, encouraging her to lift her nose from books in the evening and join the activities of her classmates."

Another graduate, also married, believes that, though college does not hamper a girl's chance of marrying, it may delay her marriage. The girl, on leaving college, wants to try her wings for a while before settling down and her thoughts do not turn to a husband until her later twenties.

"Contrary to this being a bad thing," she contended, "I think it is an extremely good thing, for divorce statistics show that divorce usually comes as the climax to an early marriage."

"In my experience, college girls are apt to stay married longer than practically any other class of women in the community," said a third graduate. "They know their own mind when they do marry, and application at studies in college has told them no subject, even matrimony, can be learned without hard work and determined effort. They make good wives, because they work at making good wives."

LIMIT BUFFET SUPPER TO POPULAR DISHES
By MARY E. DAGUE

Giving a buffet party? Then plan, plan, plan days ahead so that on the day you'll have little to do but get out the silver and set the table.

There are as many ways of setting buffet tables as there are hostesses to set them. The same is true with menu making, but one thing is certain—good old food standbys are most popular for a serve-yourself party.

At one end of the table put a platter of cold cuts. At the other end and sharing honors put a big bowl of salad. Balance the table by placing the hot dish between the tray of sandwiches and pile of plates and napkins on one side of the table and the flat silver arranged in precise rows on the other side. Then as you add to your menu to suit your needs, remember to keep this balanced distribution of foods and dishes.

DISTINCTIVE HOT DISH NEEDED
Sometimes the beverage is served from the buffet table, but usually it's more convenient to serve from a side table.

The hot dish may be a savory, a curry, a Newburg or something thereof. But whatever it is, don't repeat a flavor or ingredient featured in either the salad or meat platter.

I make up my meat platter of thin slices of cold baked ham, slices of breast of chicken, pickled tongue and salmon. Then I do a hot dish of fish and a salad of vegetables.

Accoutrements are: A cheese-tray with several kinds of cheese and at least two varieties of crackers and a relish tray with celery hearts, radish roses, ripe and green olives, pickles and a form of jelly.

If you add a sweet, let it be pretty—ice box cake, lemon meringue, pie, filled sponge or angel food cake, a Bavarian cream or a baked and chilled fruit whip with whipped cream. A dessert that deteriorates on standing is unwise for the maidless hostess.

At a buffet dinner the host often carries the hot roast at the head of the table. A handsome leg of lamb, half a ham stuck full of cloves and roasted, boned and stuffed cushion of veal, crown roast of lamb, baked rib of beef or a perfect meat pie, any one of these is delicious. A vegetable, a salad and dessert complete the menu. Cocktails and canapés may be passed in the living-room before dinner or they, too, may be served from a side table in the dining-room.

TO-MORROW'S MENU
Breakfast: Cereal with strawberries, cream, spinach with poached eggs on toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon: Asparagus au gratin, lettuce sandwiches, rhubarb cobbler, milk, tea.

Dinner: Short ribs of beef pot-roasted, potatoes and carrots cooked with meat, salad of mixed greens with Roquefort cheese dressing, cheesy mousse, hot milk angel food cake, coffee.

PERMIT POLISH TO DRY BEFORE OILING CUTICLE

If you are having trouble with nail polish that cracks and peels, do not be too quick to blame it on the polish. Careful tests, made recently by one manufacturer of manicure preparations, showed that most peeling polish can be traced to the improper use of cuticle oils and creams during the manicure routine.

Oil is beneficial of course, because it prevents cuticle from becoming hard and nails from growing brittle. However, it always should be used after the polish has been applied and is quite dry.

If you put on oil before polish, no matter how carefully you wipe it off, some is sure to remain. This thin film, unfortunately, prevents the polish from adhering properly. As a result, your polish peels before it should. Remember, too, that two coats stay on much longer than one.

When you are ready to manicure your hands, remove all old polish with a remover that has an oil base. Then, using the coarse side of an emery board, file each nail into shape. Smooth down rough edges with the fine side of the emery board, scrub nails with warm water and soap and use cuticle remover to push back the cuticle and to clean underneath each nail. Scrape off dead skin.

When you have finished, wash your hands again and use a buffer to stimulate circulation. Buff only in one direction, however, as the friction caused by two-way buffing overheats the nail.

Application of polish is the next step. When both coats dry, rub cuticle oil or cream around each nail.

Your message...
2,100,000 persons buy newspapers every day in Canada. At least twice that number read them. Consumers who can be reached by other forms of advertising are already—in most instances—daily newspaper readers. This means that your message to the Canadian consumer is carried intensively in a dominant basic medium addressed to the concentrated city markets and those dependent upon and radiating outward from them.

Virtually all who can read, read a daily newspaper, and among these are your actual and potential customers. The dealer, too, is a newspaper reader and very frequently a daily newspaper advertiser.

If you have a product or a service that the Canadian people can use, the daily newspapers place in your hands the power to reach these potential customers. Because of their exceptional flexibility the newspapers are able to act both as a primary and as a reminder medium, and to adapt the size of their advertisements; the style of their copy and frequency of insertion to fit every purpose.

INCOGS LOSE FIRST MATCH

Veteran E. D. Freeman Largely Responsible For Albions' Victory

Going in to bat first, Albions knocked up 66 runs, a total which was good enough to defeat the previously unbeaten Incogs by 20 runs in a league cricket match at Beacon Hill Park Saturday afternoon.

In a friendly match at Macdonald Park, the Victoria Cricket Club defeated University School by 64 for four wickets to 50, all out.

It was largely the deadly bowling of the veteran Albions' man, E. D. Freeman, that brought the Incogs to their knees. Freeman bagged seven wickets for 18 runs. He got the formidable Reg Wenman bow, when Wenman had knocked up a mere 2 runs—an event which at one blow reduced the ace batter's batting average from 87 to 55.66. Not a single man on the Incogs' side reached double figures.

For the Albions, Gibbons was high scorer with 22 and Freeman himself got 19. These were the only double-figure men.

FRIENDLY MATCH
In the match at Macdonald Park, the University School, going in first, were all out for 50, Goe, with 14, being the only man to score above 9. Darcus got five school wickets for 19 and G. Jones three for 14.

In its reply, the Victoria Club knocked up 66 for four wickets, thus winning comfortably. Goe was high man with 16, Darcus was 14 before being run out, and Kinch and Barber-Starkey were both not out with 14 and 10, respectively.

ANGELS HAND OAKS LACING

Los Angeles Ball Club Too Strong For Oakland Squad Sunday

Associated Press

Southern California is no place for sturdy Oaks to thrive.

Oakland, which until a week ago had led the Pacific Coast League most of this season, wound up its series with the Los Angeles club yesterday in the southern city. Unable to score a run in either contest, the Oaks dropped their fourth game in a row to the SoCal.

The scores yesterday, just for the record's sake, were 12 to 0 and 8 to 0, and were featured by the return of Gene Lillard, brilliant Angels player, who clouted two home runs, bringing his total to twenty-two this year.

Hollywood, holding its somewhat distant third place, administered another beating to Seattle, 10 to 3, and 3 to 1; San Francisco split the Sunday doubleheader with Sacramento, winning the first 7 to 1, and losing a 7 to 5 afternoon affair. Missions and Portland divided their two games. The Ducks collected a 2 to 0 morning win and the Reds winning 7 to 3 in the other.

BRENTWOOD IN CREW VICTORY

The Brentwood College four turned back the friendly challenge of a crew from St. George's School, Vancouver, in a rowing race over the choppy waters of Brentwood Arm on Saturday, winning by three lengths from the visiting boat.

In tennis matches played following the race, the teams broken even.

Brentwood's crew was as follows: Barrett-Leonard, stroke; Thwaites, No. 3; Asselstine, No. 2; Duncan, bow. St. George's boat included Walls, stroke; Sweeney, No. 3; Sloan, No. 2; Drabble, bow.

In the intercity tennis matches, the teams broke even in the singles and the doubles was set-til. Williams, Brentwood, defeated Aldersey, St. George's, 6-2, 6-4, while Gordon of the visitors won from Rhodes, Brentwood, 4-6, 6-2, 2-6. The doubles match was unfinished, each side winning a set before play was halted.

Williams and Rhodes took the opening set, 6-1, but dropped the next to their opponents, Aldersey and Gordon, 6-4.

Clip out this feature, attach the stamp described, if you have it or can get it, and paste up in scrap-book form.

CHANGHAI, Europe's "door to the Orient" is one of the strangest cities in the world, without an equal elsewhere. Here is a single city, one of the world's greatest, yet with three distinct administrative areas—the international settlement, mainly of British and American representatives, the French concession, and the native quarter.

This peculiar arrangement began when, in 1842, at the conclusion of the "Opium War," the British located their quarters north of the native city. From this sprang concessions to other Occidental countries, and opening of the great gateway of commerce into China.

In 1893, the Shanghai municipality issued a local stamp commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of its settlement by the British.

Lawyer Takes Evidence

MR. ALBERT ANDREWS

In a statement, made before a lawyer, Mr. Andrews, 68 Main St., St. Catharines, tells how Fruit-a-tives completely rid him of indigestion. He says, "I suffered for months. I could not eat or drink without pain and gas. I tried many remedies without success. Then I read of Fruit-a-tives and tried them. My first box of Fruit-a-tives gave wonderful results and after a few weeks I was completely rid of all pain. Now I eat anything and feel fine all the time."

Fruit-a-tives have helped thousands as they helped Mr. Andrews. But then they are really different. The discovery of a famous Canadian doctor, Fruit-a-tives contain extracts of apples, oranges, figs, prunes and herbs. Acting on the liver and intestinal tract, they help the kidneys to normal, healthy action. If you suffer from indigestion, constipation or kindred ills, try Fruit-a-tives. You'll be amazed how much better they'll soon make you feel.

Modern Dental Methods Told

Seattle Dentist Conducts Clinic Here on Artificial Teeth-making

The modern dentistry technique of taking impressions for false teeth was demonstrated to Victoria dentists at a clinic in the Empress Hotel on Saturday, conducted by Dr. F. J. Hoelscher of Seattle. The meeting was attended by twenty-four local members of the professions.

Dr. Hoelscher explained the latest methods for taking denture impressions in such a manner as to restore the natural expression of the face, and also dealt with the selection of artificial teeth to conform with the patient's type, expression and color.

The demonstration was followed by a dinner in the hotel, at which Dr. Hoelscher gave a paper on "The Modern Trend of Dentistry Today."

The Seattle doctor was assisted in his exhibitions by Ernest Holland, technician, also of Seattle.

Local dentists attending the clinic were: Dr. H. J. Henderson, Dr. A. J. Thomas, Dr. Stanley Miles, Dr. E. W. Hetherington, Dr. E. H. Griffiths, Dr. J. L. Thompson, Dr. Harold H. Hare, Dr. Harry Johns, Dr. Angus McInnes, Dr. Hugh Clarke, Dr. A. G. Lough, Dr. Alce Cunningham, Dr. W. H. Cunningham, Dr. Johnson, Dr. J. P. Mercer, Dr. A. H. Tanner, Dr. C. N. Westwood, Dr. H. C. Gill, Dr. B. E. Nickells, Dr. J. C. Poole, Dr. C. R. Mitchell, Dr. S. Youlton, Dr. Arthur Poyntis and Dr. W. J. Gibson.

REPORT SLOW IMPROVEMENT

Upward Movement of Canadian Business Still Felt, Say Credit Men

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, June 3.—A slow but steady improvement in trade conditions across Canada is revealed in the weekly report issued by the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association.

Business failures show a decrease of one for the week ended May 25, when twenty-six were reported.

The report follows:

Halifax—Little change in trade reported during the past two weeks. Collections moderate.

Saint John—Trade volume compares favorably with last year. Collections fair to slow.

Montreal—Slight improvement noted in building trades. Both city and country merchants benefited by improved weather. Collections fair to good.

Toronto—Wholesale and retail trade generally report trade holding its own. Improved weather brought improvement to business. Collections fair to good.

Winnipeg—Manufacturers report volume of trade for May compares favorably with last year. Wholesale and retail trade steady. Collections fair to good.

Regina—Trade in all lines generally satisfactory with increased hardware sales. Collections fair to good.

Moose Jaw—Wholesale and retail trade holding up fairly good, compared with last year. Collections fair.

Saskatoon—A pickup in the hardware trade has brightened the trade outlook here with other lines holding in line with last year. Collections fair to slow.

Calgary—Wholesale and retail trade moving in fair volume. Collections fair to slow.

Edmonton—Trade generally improving with current collections improved.

Vancouver—Trade volume shows an increase over last year. Trade in city and country satisfactory with collections fair to slow.

FOREIGN CALL LOANS LOWER

Return of Chartered Banks Shows Increase in Deposits Over March

Canadian Press
Ottawa, June 3.—A drop of more than $17,000,000 in call loans outside Canada featured the return of assets and liabilities of Canadian chartered banks as at last April 30.

The return, made public by the Department of Finance, shows call loans abroad at that date at $78,990,128, compared with $94,118,143 on March 31, 1935, and $119,534,926 on April 30 last year. Filling of the call money rate on the New York market is understood to have brought about the reduction in these loans.

Demand deposits increased more than $60,000,000 and savings deposits at $1,451,711,330 were up about $5,000,000 compared with March 30. Both call and current loans were up slightly in Canada and current loans outside increased more than $6,000,000.

There were fewer Bank of Canada notes in circulation by about $6,000,000. Government and other securities held by banks increased by $30,000,000 to $1,000,408,760.

The summary:

	April 30 1935	March 30 1935	April 30 1934
Reserve fund	132,750,000	127,410,000	121,410,000

PLAN TRADING IN PRODUCE FUTURES

Canadian Press
Montreal, June 3.—Butter and egg futures will be traded on the Canadian Commodity Exchange here shortly if plans of a committee formed by the Montreal Provision Trades Association go through. It is planned to enable produce traders representative throughout the Dominion to participate, and to carry daily price quotations over the telephone ticker system of the Montreal Stock Exchange.

It was announced the Commodity Exchange has made an offer of thirty memberships for produce traders.

Tentative plans call for the first trading in butter and eggs for spot and spot-to-arrive calls and for futures on butter. The new market will have a broad national character, with representative members trading from all sections of Canada.

Montreal butter and egg prices already have a considerable effect on the Victoria market. The proposed service would be beneficial to the local trade, according to local wholesalers.

That the city may proceed at once with the project for the widening of Port Street, that the city engineer may be authorized to issue the new street lines and that the question of apportioning the assessment for the cost of the work may be left in abeyance until the scheme shall have been completed, was the opinion offered by the city engineer, W. J. Taylor, K.C., at a meeting of a special committee having the matter in hand last evening.

Salmon fishing commenced yesterday, when the first lift of spring salmon was made from one of the Friday, Durham and Brodie traps.

Babe Ruth Quits Boston Braves Following Fight With Fuchs

THE SPORTS MIRROR

IT WASN'T Tony Lazzeri's fault that the New York Yankees ball team obtained a rather poor start this spring, and the Wallingford Wop has played a major role in their reversal of form. Ed Barrow, erstwhile boss and business manager of the outfit, considers Lazzeri more valuable as a team player than even the steady Lou Gehrig.

The free-spending Col. Jacob Ruppert has lavished numerous small fortunes for material, and of all the purchases he has made for the Yankees, the one that has brought Lazzeri from the Pacific Coast League in the spring of 1934 is the best investment.

The Yankees gave Bill Lane, owner of the Salt Lake club, $55,000 and five players for Lazzeri, who had hit .350 and led the circuit in home runs and stolen bases.

After completing arrangements for Lazzeri, the Yankee manager went on to the young man who was an epileptic. So informed Lane.

"Send Lazzeri back, fits and all," was the Salt Lake owner's terse reply.

The Yankees kept Lazzeri, and it is unnecessary to say that they haven't been sorry.

Sultan of Swat Sings Swan Song Tom'Kechnie Men

"Double-crossed," Says Bambino, As He Withdraws From National League Outfit

Associated Press

Boston, June 3.—Babe Ruth and the Boston Braves have parted. Baseball's mighty slugger was made a free agent yesterday, soon after he announced he was quitting the National League team because of a dispute with Judge Emil Fuchs, president of the Braves.

"I can't get along with Fuchs," the home-run slugger Babe explained as he sang the swan song for one of the most glamorous of baseball's careers.

"I will never play another game for Boston Braves, although I have the hit best record for my Boston teammates and their manager, Bill McKee."

"Fuchs double-crossed me and I will not play for the club as long as he remains in control."

FUCHS' STATEMENTS

Judge Fuchs today refused to add to his remarks of yesterday concerning the removal of Ruth from the Braves.

"I am sorry to see Babe go," said Fuchs, "but after all, it was for the best interests of the team. I am not sorry I brought Ruth to Boston. I would do the same thing over again, assuming the outcome would be what I hoped it would be. However, the Babe didn't deliver, and that is that."

"Despite his great record, he isn't bigger than the game, and as far as I am concerned he has gone the way all ball players go who have reached the end of their usefulness."

Shortly after the Babe announced his voluntary retirement, Fuchs announced he had given Ruth his unconditional release. It is likely the resignation of Ruth will cause an upheaval in the club's upstairs office.

MAY CAUSE SHAKE-UP

The incident may hasten passage of complete control of the Braves into the hands of Charles F. Adams, owner of two Boston professional hockey clubs, guiding genius of the Boston Bruins, and a former horse racing track in East Boston, and controlling stockholder of the National League baseball club here.

Ruth said he decided to go on the Boston Braves, but he was not in New York to participate in the ceremony in honor of the French liner Normandie's arrival.

Ruth, who was accompanied by his wife, their two daughters and his mother-in-law, drove away in a big sedan. A wedding band crowded the lobby of his hotel and Ruth was forced to shoulder his way through the throng. The wedding guests showered Ruth with rice intended for the bride and groom.

At the curb Bill McKee, manager of the Braves, shook the hand of the departing Babe.

SLOW BURNING BOMB

The Babe's action marked the explosion of the slow burning bomb that has had the baseball world going around with its fingers in its ears since the season started.

Yesterday evening, Fuchs, after several hours of seclusion, came out.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

—By John Hix

Strange as it seems, there are more than 2,000,000 tints and shades of color visible to the human eye, each distinct enough to be distinguished from all the others.

In theory the number of tints and shades that can be mixed from the primary colors is infinite, but human vision seems to be limited to about a thousand different hues, of which there are about 2,000,000 tints and shades. Any closer shading will appear to the eye as a single color. In addition, there are rays at the ends of the spectrum—infra-red and ultra-violet rays—which the eye cannot see.

Delicate instruments can detect a difference between two colors so closely matched that the eye is unable to distinguish between them. A single color, blue for instance, can be made into hundreds of distinguishable tints and shades—and so it is with all colors.

Harold Pretty Uplands Champ

Defeats Harold Brynjolfson 3 and 2 in Final For Golf Title After Trailing in Morning Round

Shooting snail-golf on the afternoon round, Harold Pretty overcame a deficit of two holes on the first eighteen to finish the final for the Uplands Golf Club championship three up and two to play against Harold Brynjolfson yesterday.

The championship was regarded as one of the finest in the club's history.

Brynjolfson was one up on the ninth in the morning play, going out in even par figures for a thirty-five at the turn against Pretty's thirty-six.

Both came in in thirty-three for totals of sixty-eight and sixty-nine respectively. At the end of the first eighteen, Brynjolfson was two up.

MAKES UP DEFICIT

In the afternoon Pretty started out by winning the nineteenth with a birdie three, lost the next hole to a par by Brynjolfson, and finished the outgoing half one up. Coming in Pretty picked up two more holes, the match finishing at the thirty-fourth where both players had birdies.

Pretty putting his drive about fifteen inches from the cup while Brynjolfson sunk a fourteen footer.

The thirty-six hole score follows:

Morning Round

Pretty out 48 54 54—38
Brynjolfson out 44 54 54—38
Pretty in 43 54 54—35
Brynjolfson in 44 54 54—38

Afternoon Round

Pretty out 35 54 54—35
Brynjolfson out 44 54 54—38
Pretty in 43 54 54—35

Vancouver Team Defeats South Wellington For Provincial Junior Crown

Nanaimo, June 3.—Forsts Radio, of Vancouver, captured their third successive B.C. junior soccer championship here yesterday, outscoring South Wellington 3 to 1, after an overtime session had been played. The home team dominated play until the extra period.

A fluke goal, four minutes from time, knotted the count for the radio men, who had been on the short end of the score for twenty minutes.

Obie Thomas tallied South Wellington's marker on a cross from Gannon and the local eleven stayed off all equalizing efforts until the ball skidded into their net as Bulich was attempting an easy clearance from Barrie, Forst's winger.

John Johnson and Jack Johnson each scored in the overtime. R. Woodard of Vancouver refereed.

Paris, June 3.—French tennis critics having watched a drab French hard court tennis tournament, today conjectured the Czechs would be the team to watch in the coming Davis Cup play.

The hard court tournament wound up yesterday with Fred Perry of England capturing the men's singles title and Mme. Hilda Krahwinkel Sperling of Germany taking the women's singles crown.

Most of these who watched the play, liberally sprinkled with unsprinkled matches, were thinking more of the coming Davis Cup matches than they were of the desultory action before them. They watched the technique of the Czechs, Roderick Munnell and L. Hecht, who have proved their worth before, then the slashing play of Caks and Malcock, and agreed they were the most improved players in the international field.

FERRY VICTOR

The final in the men's singles, when Perry dethroned Baron Gottfried Von Cramm, the defender, was probably the most stirring match of the entire tournament. The scores were 6-3, 3-6, 6-1, 6-3.

Mme. Sperling had an easy time disposing of Miss Renne Maileu of France in straight sets, 6-2, 6-1.

Other champions crowned previously were: Men's doubles, Jack Crawford and Adrian Quist, Australians; women's doubles, Margaret Scriven and Katherine Gammeter, England; mixed doubles, Marcel Bernard, France, and Lolette Fayot, Switzerland.

Perry found a stalwart antagonist in Von Cramm. Perry won by virtue of a seeming divination as to where the German nobleman would place his shots.

MACCABEES IN SHIELD FINAL

Beat Outer Wharf Rangers 3 to 0; to Meet Navy in Soccer Game

Maccabees will battle the Navy for the McKay Shield at Admirals Road at 2.45 o'clock Wednesday afternoon as a result of their semi-final soccer victory over the Outer Wharf Rangers at Heywood Avenue grounds Saturday evening. The lodgement won by 3 to 0.

Maccabees led 1 to 0 at half-time. A heavy wind made it difficult to produce a consistently good brand of football, but the teams did well under the circumstances. The only score of the first was the work of Fieldhouse, whose free kick from just outside the penalty area hit the crossbar and crashed down to bounce off Goalkeeper Roakamp into the net.

On the resumption of play in the second half, Maccabees had the upper hand for a quarter of an hour, their forcing of the play finally bringing results when Speller best Roakamp neatly to make the score 2 to 0.

FINAL GOAL

For a while the Rangers were a threat, but Goals Sedler cleared everything. Maccabees resumed the offensive and, after several close calls, sewed the game up through McBride's goal. On the bright end of the score, Maccabees cleared every attempt made by the Outer Wharf squad until Dave McMillan blew his whistle to send the boys home.

The teams were:

Maccabees—Sadler, Graves, Eastwood, Fieldhouse, Chapman, McBride, A. Murray, Speller, J. Murray, Gannon and Roberts.

Outer Wharf Rangers—Roakamp, Gelling, White, Thame, Gelling, Bedford, Anderson, MacDonald, Watson, Bourne and Hall.

FISH AND GAME CLUB

The Victoria and District Fish and Game Club will meet Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce small hall. All members and those interested are urged to be on hand as recommendations covering the open seasons on upland game birds will be made and sent in to the game commission. For further information telephone the secretary, E 2113 or G 5223.

Scots Start East; Held To One Goal

Vancouver Presents Stiff Opposition to Touring Football Team; to Play in Winnipeg Next

Canadian Press

Vancouver, June 3.—Scotland's touring football eleven were enroute to Winnipeg, where they will play the eighth game of their North America tour on Wednesday.

They defeated a Vancouver and district all-star aggregation here on Saturday, 1 to 0, meeting what was probably the stiffest opposition on this continent.

The Scots had the edge in play through practically all of the game, using a short passing attack, but the local boys kept them from scoring until five minutes from the end of the game. Hughie Galscher, veteran player of the tourists, hooked the ball over his head into the net on a perfect corner from Douglas Duncan, outside left.

Results of Saturday evening's Victoria and District Junior Football League fixtures follow:

Strawberry Vale 0, Poul Bay 3.
Oak Bay Merchants 3, Harris's Cyclists 2.

ALLAY FEAR FOR FISHING VESSEL

Canadian Press from Havas Saint Malo, France, June 3.—Fear for the lives of thirty-five men on the fishing vessel Marchal Luxembourg, reported in distress on the Newfoundland banks, were ended to-day by a cable from the builders of the vessel, saying they had been notified at St. John's, Newfoundland, that the vessel is able to navigate despite a damaged rudder.

SWISS OPPOSE RECOVERY PLAN

Canadian Press-Havas
 Bern, June 3.—The Swiss people were on record to-day as firmly opposed to a recovery plan which the government had declared would threaten the stability of the Swiss franc. By a vote of 568,000 to 426,000 the project for a "new deal," which would give extraordinary powers to the central government in financial and economic matters, was defeated in a two-day referendum.

NEWS IN BRIEF

A meeting of the C.C.F. Unemployed Council will be held in the parish hall, Regimait, to-morrow evening, at 8 o'clock.

Guy Sheppard will speak over CPCT, at 8 o'clock, on Tuesday, on
 "The Red Menace and the League of Nations."

Rev. Dr. W. G. Wilson was the guest speaker at the dinner held by the Soroptimist Club at The Anchorage Restaurant, Brudenell, on the occasion of their fourth anniversary. Dr.
 Wilson congratulated the club upon their welfare work recently undertaken in connection with the Children's Aid Society.

The Victoria Horticultural Society will hold its regular monthly meeting in the City Hall, to-morrow night at 8 o'clock. Mrs. J. D. Gordon will be the speaker and will discuss the preserving of fruits. As this talk is of a very practical nature a cordial invitation to anyone interested to be present is extended by the society.

MORE CHARGES MADE BY ITALY

Britain Accused of Supplying Arms to Ethiopia;
 Denial Made

Canadian Press
 Rome, June 3.—Charges Great Britain is furnishing Ethiopia with arms and that British officials are encouraging Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia in many ways were made to-day by the newspaper Giornale d'Italia.

The newspaper quotes Lieut-Col.
 Clifford of the British army and a member of the Anglo-Ethiopian Commission, as saying that the British government has requested the British government's permission to place Ethiopia under Great Britain's protection for twenty-five years.

The newspaper said the statement was denied in Addis Ababa, the capital of Ethiopia, but it continued to circulate.

Similar accusations previously had brought a British protest to the Italian government.

NAVY LIMITS ARE DISCUSSED

Germany Offers Britain
 General Plan, But No Category Restriction

Associated Press
 London, June 3.—The German delegates to the Anglo-German naval conference have reported in diplomatic circles to-day to oppose any British suggestions for the restriction of war vessels by categories.

It was understood the Germans regarded their offer to keep their navy under 35 per cent of the British strength as the only restriction the Reich can accept.

They were expected to insist that the manner in which Germany distributes her tonnage is a matter for her to decide alone.

Although Reichswehr Minister proposed for the abolition of submarines undoubtedly will be discussed, there is little belief that anything more than a tentative agreement may be concluded here. Italy and France, both with larger fleets of submarines, must be consulted. It was pointed out, before any final accord of this nature may be reached.

Rev. T. A. Jansen New President

Grace Lutheran Pastor Succeeds Rev. Dr. E. A. Henry As Ministerial Head

Rev. T. A. Jansen, of the Grace Lutheran Church, was elected president of the Victoria Ministerial Association at the annual meeting in the Y.W.C.A. this morning. He succeeded Rev. Dr.
 E. A. Henry, of Fairfield United.

Other officers named were: Rev.
 Dr. A. S. Baur, Emmanuel Baptist,
 vice-president; Rev. A. M. Scherer, Anglican, secretary; treasurer—
 re-elected: Rev. T. A. McAllister, Presbyterian; Rev. G. A. Reynolds,
 Baptist; Rev. J. A. Ward, Pentecostal;
 Rev. G. P. Duffield, Fourquare Gospel; Rev. D. Walker, Missionary Alliance; Rev. F. Conley, Anglican; Rev. C. B. Owen, Free Church of England; and Rev. Dr. E. A. Henry, past president, executive members.

The association received a deputation from the Women's League for Social Justice when a discussion took place on the report of the association's special committee inquiring into relief camp conditions. The committee was requested to continue its work and it was decided to hold a special meeting to deal with the matter after the report of the Royal Commission has been made public.

SIGNALS GOING IN TO-MORROW

Installation of traffic signals for Victoria will get under way tomorrow and should be completed and ready for operation by the middle of the month. It was announced this morning by Police Chief Heatley. The signals will be placed at Douglas Street intersections at Johnson, Yates, View and Fort Streets. Preparations are also being made to install signal lights at Johnson and View Streets in order that pedestrian traffic will not slow up the operation of the signals.

FUNERAL TO-MORROW

Funeral services for Mrs. Matilda
 Stuart, who passed away on Friday last at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Ismay, Ash Road, Gordon Road, will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the chapel of the Sands Mortuary Limited. Officiating at the service will be Canon F. A. P. Cheswick, and interment will be in the family plot in Rose Bay Cemetery.

BIG DAY FOR CITY SCHOOLS

Nearly 3,200 Children Will Take Part in Colorful Spectacle on Wednesday

The most ambitious programme ever undertaken by city school children, which is expected to overshadow the event at the Willows three years ago when nearly 10,000 persons witnessed it, will be presented Wednesday afternoon at the Royal Athletic Park.

In this event 3,200 city school pupils will take part giving various exhibitions ranging from calisthenic drills to pageant demonstrations.

Under the direction of Major A. C.
 Hinton, public schools physical training supervisor, workers have been busy preparing the stage for the exhibition which is expected to attract thousands.

The feature of the day will be a pageant of nations of the British Empire during which a giant Union Jack and Maple Leaf will be formed in color. All major nations of the empire will be represented.

The programme will be announced by Major Hinton over a public address system which will carry his voice to all sections of the park, where blackberries have been specially built to accommodate the crowd.

CALESTHENIC DISPLAY
 The first event, to commence at 2:30 o'clock, will be a calisthenic and physical training display by school cadets. This will be followed with folk dancing by children from all schools.

Another colorful number will be the Scottish dance, in full Highland costume, by sixty-five dancers, accompanied by the 15th Canadian Scottish pipe band.

A "touch of Old Ireland" will be lent by the fourth number, an Irish lilt by 125 girls in costumes.

Nearly 400 youngsters will take in the fifth number, a rhythmic dance, conducted by a six-year-old lad who was warmly commended by Dr. Gordon Stanley at the recent musical festival.

The boys from the High School will take part in a series of tableaux and ground pyramids while 100 girls from the same institution will demonstrate club swinging.

The afternoon will be concluded with the pageant. The High School orchestra, directed by Al Prescott will be in attendance for the day.

T. W. ROBINSON PASSES AWAY

Thomas William Robinson, aged seventy years, of 3400 Wexham Street, Saanich, passed away Saturday night at his home. Born on Guernsey Island, Mr. Robinson had been a resident in the city for the last twenty years.

He was a member of the Victoria-Columbia Lodge No. 1, A.F. and A.M.; Premier Lodge No. 1610, L.O.L., and a member of L.O.O.F. He is survived by one son and two sisters, on Guernsey Island. He was predecessed by his wife last April. His remains are resting at McCall Bros.'
 Funeral Home.

The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon from McCall Bros.' Funeral Home at 3 o'clock.
 Rev. Daniel Walker will conduct the service after which interment will be in Colwood Burial Park.

DERBYSHIRE IN CRICKET LEAD

Midlands County Team Remains at Head of Table With Win Over Hampshire

Canadian Press Cable
 London, June 3.—Derbyshire maintained its place at the top of the county cricket championship table to-day defeating Hampshire by an innings and 104 runs.

D. M. Smith gave a brilliant batting display for the winners hitting 225 runs. The Midlands county has won four out of five games played, points for a first inning victory being obtained in the odd match.

Four other matches were completed to-day. Leicestershire won from Worcestershire by seven wickets, Glamorgan defeated Northamptonshire by an innings and 109 runs, Yorkshire gained a two wickets victory over Kent and Sussex overwhelmed Somerset by an innings and 85 runs.

Scores follow: Derbyshire 140 and 134; Derbyshire 175 for nine wickets, declared (Smith 225), at Chesterfield.
 Worcestershire 111 and 77; Leicestershire
 187 and 83 for three, at Bourne.
 Northamptonshire 137 and 108;
 Glamorgan 349 (Davies 101), at Llanelli.
 Kent 182 and 140; Yorkshire 131 and 123 for eight wickets (Sutcliffe 110, Freeman seven for 108), at Bradford.

Sussex 321 for nine wickets, declared; Somerset 140 and 132, at Hove.

CLOSE OF PLAY
 Close of play scores in other matches were:
 Middlesex 149; Gloucestershire 97
 for three wickets; Leicestershire Surrey 175 and 37 for one; Essex
 221 (O'Connor 73), at the Oval.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

Los Angeles, June 3.—To the Editor of The Times: Well, sir, a fellow-looking citizen came to my house this Sunday afternoon.
 Said he was one of Roosevelt's cabinet. And he looked it.
 It was Mr. E. A. Tamm, secretary of commerce. I try to make it a point to never turn anybody away. First one of the New Deal I had seen since the supreme court took their matches away from 'em. He was a game southern gentleman. No kicks. No squawks. He and I searched through the burned cabinet to see if any little New Deal object might be salvaged. We decided that with big business operating under the "dog eat dog" rule, so many dogs would eventually get bit that parts of the NRA would look like a halo by 1936.

W. K. MILNE IS FATALLY GORED

Critically gored by a bull on his farm at Pritchard, B.C., last Friday, William K. Milne, whose family gave its name to Milne's Landing, died at 2 o'clock this morning in the Royal Island Hospital at Kamloops, according to word received here.

The late Mr. Milne was suddenly attacked by the animal, and as his wife and several neighbors watched helplessly, he was tossed over a fence.
 His diaphragm was torn and one leg ripped open.

The dead man was known in Victoria through the visits he made here and through his membership in a family that has occupied a leading place in Vancouver Island history.
 The last time he was here was for the funeral of his mother, who died at the close of last year.

The late Mr. Milne was the second son of Edward Milne, who still lives at Milne's Landing. He was born at Sooke July 22, 1886, and was now been forty-nine next month.

He married his widow, three daughters and two sons, all at the Pritchard family home; a sister,
 Miss Agnes Milne, a brother, Fred Milne, and his father at Milne's Landing, and a number of other relatives elsewhere. W. C. Kerr, Government Street, is an uncle.

HOMES ABLAZE IN CUMBERLAND

Cumberland's Chinatown to-day was threatened with being completely wiped out following a fire which broke out at 12:15 o'clock and at 3 o'clock had engulfed about twenty-five homes.

Concern was being expressed for the safety of a number of buildings owned by the Canadian Collieries which are located between Cumberland and Chinatown. A fresh wind was blowing the flames in the direction of these but it was believed they could be saved.
 A large crew of firemen and volunteers, under Assistant Chief
 J. Cameron were battling the fire.
 Assisted by the new pumper which the city recently purchased. There were no injuries reported.

The Victoria Horticultural Society will again conduct its annual Home Garden Competition this year, according to an announcement made this morning by F. E. Boulter, secretary of the society.

Judges of the gardens will take place in July, and will be completed a week before the society's summer show.

The object of the contest is for educational purposes with a view to wards greater efficiency in the art of decorative and productive gardening and beautification of the city.
 Challenge cups will be presented to the winners in the three classes, and there are also cash awards.

The rules of the competition follow:

1. This competition is open to all members of the society, and any person residing within the two and a half-mile circle, amateurs and professionals.

2. All gardens to be judged in classes A and B must have been worked by competitors or their families, without professional help.

 competition for the succeeding two years, but are eligible to enter the Vancouver Island Horticultural Association's competition, for which five gardens are entered by this society.

DIED IN ENGLAND

Friends in Victoria and Duncan will regret to hear of the death in England, on May 29, of Miss Minnie Richardson, sister of Mr. Lawford Richardson of Vernon. For some years Miss Richardson made her home near Oxford, England, and previous to that time resided in Victoria for a number of years. Mr. Lawford Richardson and Mrs. Richardson, who have been visiting in Victoria recently, have not yet returned to Vancouver, where they will make their home.

FUNERAL SERVICE

Vancouver, June 3 (Canadian Press)
 Funeral services for Minnie Elizabeth Richardson, sister of Mr. Lawford Richardson, a teacher in Vancouver, and two sons, William of Longview, Wash., and Peter, Corvallis, Ore., there will be service over the remains to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at McCall Bros' Funeral Home, after which the body will be sent to Seattle for cremation.

REMAINS CREMATED

There was a large attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Flora Earleham, who passed away at her home, 185 Joseph Street, on May 29. Service was held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, after which the remains were for-forwarded to Seattle for cremation.

at a pound of lead and an all-per Maue West spoon.
There was plenty of excitement at the derby on the week-end. More than a dozen fish weighing over twenty pounds were landed. Leonard Kays was one of the anglers to get the most fish.

Charles C. Cooper, 422 Menzies ave., is the fisherman who has secured the distinction of being the member of the Victoria-Saanich club to catch the most fish during this season. Mr. Cooper killed twenty-five pound salmon at Brent-ford a week ago and received a letter of commendation.

The first competition of the year was held by the association, will take place on Sunday week, with the Tropics Cafe as sponsors. These are the exceedingly popular sporting fishermen.

Competition winners in these competitions and during the season's fishing

Young Pianist
To Appear Soon

Ruth Sienzynski, eight-year-old "wonder child of the piano," will be brought to the screen in Paramount's "Big Broadcast of 1935." She will play three studies of Chopin, including the G Major and the Revolutionary in her motion picture debut.

For the last two years the girl's amazing virtuosity has been packing concert auditoriums throughout the nation.

Born in Sacramento, Calif., she first attracted attention by performances in San Francisco three years ago. Then she spent a year in Paris, studying under the famous Cortot. Her first appearance in New York City two years ago won tremendous acclaim.

Behind the child's success is a remarkable personal story.

Her father is Joseph Sienzynski, a Polish violinist, whose own ambitions for a music career were crushed by injuries received in the World War.

TRAINED BY FATHER
He resolved at that time that he should achieve vicarious success through his baby girl. He said that he would make her a music prodigy in spite of the contentions of science that prodigies are born and not made.

At any rate, he made good his results, and to-day the world of music admits that his child ranks among the greatest geniuses. Much of her success is attributed to his training.

Ruth Sienzynski's inclusion in "The Big Broadcast" rounds out an impressive cast, which already includes Jack Oakie, Wendy Barrie, Lydia Bobert, Bing Crosby, Anne Tri-Ande, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Ethel Merman, Jessica Dragonette, Ray Noble's band, Bill Robinson, Mimi Beardsley, Charlie Ruggles, and Sir Guy Standing.

OUT OUR WAY
DON'T WORRY ABOUT ME! I'VE JUST FINISHED STRAIGHTENING OUT THE WHOLE HOUSE AND I HAVEN'T A THING TO DO—EXCEPT FOLLOW YOU AROUND AND SEE THAT YOU DON'T GET IT ALL UPSET AGAIN. RIGHT OUT THE BACK DOOR WITH THOSE CRACKERS, YOUNG MAN.

DANCE REVIEW IS COLORFUL

Number of Spanish Dances Will Be Presented at the Royal Theatre Friday

This Spanish group of numbers arranged for the dance revue of the Florence Clough Academy to be given at the Royal Theatre Friday should prove popular. The colorful music and dancing of these buoyant, gay people has always appealed and attracted perhaps more than any other, for no finely tutored sense is needed to understand and love the fire and captivating rhythm of Spanish dancing.

A unit patio provides the setting for these characteristic Spanish dances, dances no more alluring in their beauty of rhythm than in the vivaciousness of the costumes. "The Carols," newest favorite, swirls in multi-colored skirts, abbreviated and daring. Thelma Stratford, with James Watt, synopses in the "Tango" "La Caramela," a gay Mexican dance, is brilliantly performed with castanets by Thelma Ackerman and Patricia Fenwick. "The Toreador," from "Carmen," is the music used for another number, "El Choclo," and a Spanish Apache dance present a striking contrast and, lastly, the well-known Argentine Tango, comes as a beautiful effect in mauve taffeta and shot metal cloth.

This talented organization has staged several delightful productions in the past. Announcement of its new production comes after a period of diligent rehearsal for the performance.

Many new intriguing ballets and lively chorus innovations will be introduced this year, and nothing is being spared to make the production as outstanding a success as its predecessors, "Happy Feet" and "Twinkle Toes."

One hundred and fifty dancers will participate in this performance, which will be of a spectacular character.

Many Homeless In Flood Area

Reports of Deaths in Nebraska and Kansas Still Come In Oxford, Neb., June 3.—While the raging torrents of the Republican River sweep onward into Kansas, leaving behind nearly 100 dead and thousands homeless, new flood worries assailed western Nebraska to-day as showed at least 1,000 families homeless.

Reports of heavy livestock casualties were uniform throughout the valley.

The only property damage estimated by R. R. Hartford, an engineer before the torrent completed its run through Nebraska and entered Kansas, was more than $15,000,000.

State Representative Charles Herrick of Curtis said tornado and flood damage in Frontier County alone would reach a million dollars. Business in the valley was almost standstill.

Receding waters of the mad Republican River disclosed an ugly landscape of ravines, slits and debris. Reconstruction efforts included de-ice prevention, power and communications restoration and rebuilding water supplies.

The North and South Platte Rivers plunged toward a fearsome junction. In its wake the onslaught of water left beside its toll of human life, a devastated 200-mile area in which property damage was estimated to exceed $12,000,000.

Lack of communication and confusion in duplicating of death reports made tabulating difficult.

Red Cross workers, directing St. Louis, Mo., believes it will be at least a week before the full number of dead and injured is known.

Tower said an incomplete but official survey by Red Cross chapters

St. Pierre, Mo., June 3.—A Norwegian sailor was shot in the stomach early today at St. Pierre. Police tried to halt a firing bout of sailors whom they suspected of carrying liquor away from this French island.

Condition of Paulus Jorgensen, seaman, was serious, and hospital authorities feared he would not recover.

Talthybius Kicked Along By Aft Wind

Blue Funneller, Here To-day, Crossed From Yokohama
in Thirteen Days; Ship Participated in King's Jubilee Celebrations
at Hongkong

From King's Jubilee in Hongkong to the birthday in Victoria, with intervening calls at Orient ports en route, the Talthybius, Capt. J. Power, was in port to-day, thirteen days out from Yokohama.

Capt. Power reported "one of the best trips she has ever had," as the Talthybius fetched alongside Pier 3, Ritz Dock, at 8 o'clock this morning.

Averaging thirteen and a half knots the Blue Funneller ship got half way across the Pacific before she encountered anything in the shape of a blow, and then the wind was at her stern and kicked her along to make Victoria right on schedule.

In her hold the Talthybius carried approximately 2,000 tons of freight, including 500 bales of raw silk which will be sent overland to New York via the C.P.R. system. The manifest also showed a consignment of Japanese toys which took up considerable measurement space below decks.

H. G. McDavid, traveling freight representative for the company, was cabin passenger by the Talthybius. He has been touring the Orient on business and is now returning to Liverpool via Canada.

In the stern space the ship carried ninety Chinese passengers. The Hongkong celebration on the occasion of the King's Silver Jubilee impressed the officers of the Talthybius. They were still talking about the display when the ship arrived here.

The harborfront at Hongkong was a veritable blaze of light at night during the three-day celebration and the parade, said to be one of the greatest of the many notable parades for which the colorful Orient is noted, was one and a half miles long.

Navy planes swooped through the air in a series of maneuvers as part of the scheduled festivities, and all vessels anchored in the harbor, including the Talthybius, were "dressed" with flags and pennants.

"We made the best use we could of the pennants in our lockers, but they ran out when we reached our after-mast," said a member of the ship's crew. He showed photographs of the ship with fluttering flags strung from the bow to the truck of the foremast and over the funnel to the aftermast, where the last flag trailed in the breeze.

After putting ashore steamer passengers, mails and some freight, including a parcel of rice for local consumption, the Talthybius cleared at 11 o'clock for Vancouver. She will load outward at Seattle and Tacoma, and sail from Vancouver June 23 for Yokohama, Kobe, Shanghai, and Hongkong.

SHORT GRAIN ROUTE SOUGHT

Sir H. Wilkins to Search For Practical Hudson's Bay Route Via Arctic

Canadian Press
Boston, June 2.—Sir Hubert Wilkins hopes to start some time this year on a new submarine exploration trip in search of "a practical commercial route" for shipment of Canadian grain from Hudson Bay to Europe by way of the Arctic.

The veteran explorer and authority on the Arctic frozen reaches made this known before sailing from Seattle Sunday with Mrs. Wilkins aboard the Italian liner Conte Grande.

Sir Hubert did not enlarge on the details of his vision. He did make known, however, that he is bound for Germany, from where he expects to return to this continent with the aid of a new dirigible balloon he described as now under construction.

The Danes will be under the command of Capt. C. H. Knorr, Little, D.S.O.

Leaving Bermuda on Friday next, June 7, the Danae will steam through the Panama Canal, arriving at Balboa June 12.

Steaming northward from the canal zone, the warship will make San Francisco, San Diego, and Los Angeles.

Termin and Falcon Capsized in Saturday's Events Off Cadboro Bay

In the squally southwest wind Saturday, some clever seamanship was displayed by the tiller-men in the dinghy races of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club held Saturday off Cadboro Bay.

The contest was counted only as a local race.

Capitulating Humphrey Golby's Tern, and G. Hen's Falcon were exciting incidents.

Ned Ashe, sailing Margaret, crossed the finishing line first with the time of 4:01 minutes. Glenn in Kismet came in second with the time of 4:01; P. Hincks, sailing Onaway, with his time being 4:02; and H. W. Miller in Howami, fourth, with the time of 4:03.

Cadboro Bay Beach buoy, on the last lap, was a difficult point to negotiate with all the craft, and it was here that the Tern capsized. Gordon Campbell, skipper of the Tern, and his mate, were picked up by Max Young, patrolling the course.

In trying out Falcon, Dr. Nickell's boat, just before the starting gun, Skipper Heil's boat, half an hour previously, half filled with water when blown over by a gust of wind while at the start.

Skipper Blandy and W. T. M. Barrett, in the Boykin and Mintaka respectively, tried out the course for the star race, and on their return, because of adverse conditions, the race was called off.

B. Temple was starter and A. N. Acland Jr., timekeeper.

CHILDAR GOES TO VANCOUVER

Norwegian Motorship Leaving Esquimalt in Tow To-morrow to Refit

Canadian Press
Vancouver, June 2.—Repairs to the Norwegian motorship Childar, which has been lying at Esquimalt since she was badly damaged a year ago while crossing the Columbia River bar, will start this week at the Burrard Drydock Company plant at North Vancouver.

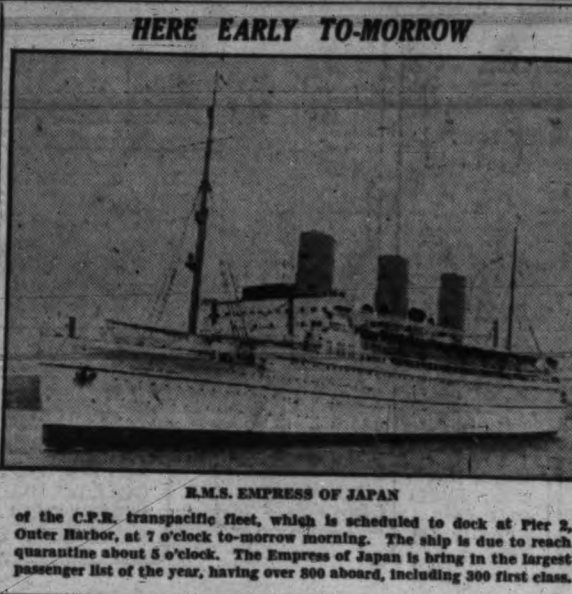

The repair job is not as extensive as was at first expected, and the owner has decided upon only temporary repairs on this Coast. After she has been passed as seaworthy, she will load for Europe and will undergo permanent repairs there. The work will occupy about thirty days.

Tenders for the repair work were called last year and were being considered when the vessel's owner died. Recently the Childar was sold to Thoralf Holta of Bergsjord, Norway, owner of a fleet of seven freighters.

The Childar will leave Esquimalt to-morrow morning at 5 o'clock, in tow of the S. Salvage King. It was announced by the Pacific Salvage Company to-day.

PILOTS' LOOKOUT

Talthybius arrived from Orient 8 a.m. Sailed at 10:30 a.m. for Vancouver.

H.M.S. Danae Will Arrive Here July 5

Schedule of British Cruiser Coming Here From West Indies Station Is Announced; to Visit Cowichan, Chemainus and Comox, Powell River and Vancouver

Itinerary of H.M.S. Danae of the British West Indies squadron, which is scheduled to arrive at Esquimalt July 5, has been issued through Commander G. C. Jones, senior officer in charge of the Esquimalt dockyard.

The Danae will be under the command of Capt. C. H. Knorr, Little, D.S.O.

Leaving Bermuda on Friday next, June 7, the Danae will steam through the Panama Canal, arriving at Balboa June 12.

Steaming northward from the canal zone, the warship will make San Francisco, San Diego, and Los Angeles.

After remaining here for three days the Danae will proceed up the Gulf maintaining the following schedule: Cowichan Bay, July 8; Chemainus, July 11; Comox, July 15; Powell River, July 20; Vancouver, August 3, returning to Victoria August 6. The ship will remain here until Monday, August 19, when she will depart for the homeward voyage, calling at San Francisco August 22, Santa Barbara August 28, San Diego September 4, Colon September 11, Kingston, Jamaica September 16, and arriving back at Bermuda October 5.

Subsequently the Danae will leave Bermuda for the United Kingdom, arriving in home waters about October 22.

While in Victoria the officers and crew of the Danae will be entertained, but in view of a request by Vice-Admiral Matthew Best, commander-in-chief of the Americas and West Indies station, it will be on a small scale, as officials and residents are not expected to incur the expense of lavishly entertaining while the warship is in port.

At Comox the crew will go ashore for musketry practice.

able of all ports to see how this form of traffic has been growing in recent years. In 1931 about 2,000,000 letters were dispatched from this country by air. In 1932 the figure had gone up to 3,000,000. By 1933 it stood at 4,000,000. And now the annual total has reached approximately 6,000,000, and is increasing rapidly.

It is eight years now since air transport on the Empire routes started with a pioneer commercial service between Cairo and Basra. To-day, passengers, mails and freight leave London on Empire air journeys which, via Egypt, take them straight to Cairo, Baghdad, Damascus, and Casablanca, and eastward to Iraq, India, Malaya and Australia.

Two services a week in each direction are now being flown between London and Johannesburg, and London and Calcutta, and by the accelerated Empire air schedules vital time savings are possible as compared with those for surface transport. To Alexandria, for example, there is a saving by air of two days, to Cape Town of eight days, to Calcutta of nine and one-half days, to Singapore of eleven and one-half days, to Brisbane, Australia, of twenty-two and one-half days.

Summarizing sixteen years of air transport progress, it may be said that British services operating from London have increased from 250 miles in 1919 to approximately 20,000 miles of European and Empire routes, in 1935, while commercial air speeds have been almost doubled, and developments which are equally striking have been effected in the luxury of aerial travel and in the reductions which have become possible in the charges for air-borne traffic.

Al travel has made remarkable progress, not only in regard to speed, but also in its increase in comfort and decrease in cost. Whereas the first small passenger-planes were cramped and noisy, and there were no catering facilities up in the air, to-day air travelers fly in silence in aircraft which have saloons larger than those of railway Pullman cars, and in which stewards serve food and six-course meals which are in every way the equal of those provided in first-class restaurants and hotels.

Commercial air speed has been increasing constantly since the infancy of civil aviation in 1919. On the first Paris service the cruising speed was about eighty miles an hour. Soon after this it went up to 100 miles an hour. Then came air-liners cruising at 120 miles an hour and with a top speed of 150 miles an hour. To-day the Imperial Airways fleet includes express air-liners which have a speed of 170 miles an hour; while certain of the company's special-charter aircraft have maximum speeds higher than that.

Co-operation between the European airways, together with increases in speed and comfort, have been accompanied from year to year by a gratifying growth in air-borne traffic of all kinds. At first there was just a trickle of traffic along the pioneer routes. Now, however, at busy times, hundreds of travelers fly to and fro across the Channel daily; while figures for a recent period of twelve months show that during that time approximately 100,000 passengers flew in and out of the London airport at Croydon, more than half of them in British air-liners.

As for the dispatch of mail-matter by air, it is one of the most favored.

Parades for week ending June 8: Tuesday, June 4, and Friday, June 7. Classes will parade at the Drill Hall, Cdt. P. Crew is struck off strength having left the corps at his own request.

The annual camp will be held during July. All ratings wishing to attend should hand in their names to the ship's officer.

Around the Docks

Predicting heavy westbound travel this year, A. J. Dickinson, passenger traffic representative of the Great Northern Railway of St. Paul, Minn., was in Victoria yesterday.

He said the San Diego expedition would attract a lot of travel to the Pacific Coast and Victoria, he pointed out, would get much of the business routed via the northwest.

FELLA WELL-LOADED
When she sails for Mediterranean ports this week the Italian motorship Fella, of the Navigazione Libera Triestina, will carry from Vancouver a total of 4,000 tons of grain and 500 tons of general. The vessel will also have a number of passengers aboard.

Empire Shipping Company, Pacific Coast agents for the line, announce that the Fella will call at Las Palmas, Barcelona, Marseilles, Genoa, Leghorn, Naples and Trieste.

PACIFIC SHIPPER OUTBOUND
Purvis Line motorship Pacific Shipper is taking out from Vancouver and New Westminster cargo consignments which include 2,500 tons of wheat and 3,000 tons of lumber, canned goods, apples and general.

Nine passengers will be carried by the ship, bound for Liverpool, Manchester and Glasgow.

The Pacific Shipper will be followed by the Ms. Pacific Pioneer, which is now due from the United Kingdom.

NEW FIXTURES
Two new charters for June loading are announced by the Canadian Transport Company Ltd. in addition to the Ceddington Court, now on berth at Vancouver for the United Kingdom.

The new fixtures are St. Uganda, due June 7 for U.K. loading, and Ms. King Ltd, due June 13, for Australia.

DIES IN ENGLAND
SIR J. S. ALLEN

Associated Press
Liverpool, June 3.—Sir John Sandeman Allen, sixty-nine, prominent in the marine insurance business, died here to-day. He was chairman of the Empire Federation of Chambers of Commerce.

Sir John retired from his position as general manager and vice-chairman of the Union Marine Insurance Company in 1921 after thirty-nine years in the business.

He was president of the International Parliamentary Commerce Conference, and vice-president of the Royal Empire Society.
